DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sarah A. Trout as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Vinita, Indian Territory, September 19, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Sarah A. Trout as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 17, 1902, and October 13, 1902.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Sarah A. Trout, a white woman, is alleged to have married, about 1874, one Andrew M. Trout, who was, at the time of said marriage, a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Delaware District, No. 2726, as a native Cherokee, and whose name is included on the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation opposite No. 23780. It is further shown that from the time of said marriage the said Andrew M. Trout and Sarah A. Trout resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation up to and including September 1, 1902. The said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, as the wife of Andrew M. Trout, and her age is given thereon as eighteen years, showing that the said Sarah A. Trout was twelve years of age at the time she is alleged to have married the said Andrew M. Trout. Said applicant on February 12, 1907, was notified to appear and give testimony tending to show the date of her marriage to the said Andrew M. Trout, which the said applicant has failed to do.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Sarah A. Trout, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 25, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINING, I.T., SEPTEMBER 19, 1900.

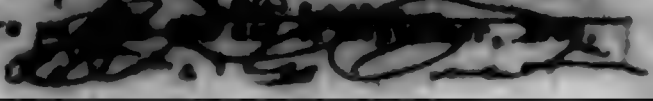

In the matter of the application of George H. Warren for the enrollment of himself and two children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation; said Warren being sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name, please? A George H. Warren.
Q How old are you? A 48.
Q What is your post office? A Adair.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself and two children.
Q Are you Cherokee by blood? A No, sir, by adoption.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate? A Yes, sir.
Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate showing that on the second or December, 1880, he was married by the Reverend N. J. Crawford to Miss R. J. Clingan; he a citizen of the United States, and she a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. License issued by the Clerk of Saline District. These papers are filed herewith.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since you married in 1880? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you on the roll of 1880? A No, sir. I was married in September.
Q Are you on the roll of 1896? A I do not think that I am on; I have re-married.
Q When did you marry? A I re-married in 1892.
Q You are married at present to your wife are you? A Yes, sir.
Q She is a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q She has no rights as a Cherokee Citizen? A No, sir.
Q She the mother of these children? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me now, please, the names of these children? A Arther Warren; 17 years old.
Q The next child? A Ollie M. Warren; 13 years old.
Q Both living now are they? A Yes, sir.
1880 enrollment; page 85, #564, Bill Clinging Cooweescoowee.
Q What age was your wife when she died? A About 34 I think.
1896 enrollment; page 279, #5082, Arther Warren, Cooweescoowee.
1896 enrollment; page 279, #5083, Mary O. Warren,

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and two children: He is shown to have been married in accordance with Cherokee law to his deceased wife in 1880, as shown by the license and certificate filed herewith. His wife is identified on the roll of 1880, under her maiden name. Since her death in 1889, the applicant has re-married. His present wife is a white woman and possesses no rights of citizenship. He is considered thereby to have forfeited his rights as a citizen, and to have no rights at this time, and therefore his application is rejected. The two children of his first wife are identified on the roll of 1896. They are living at this time, and these two children, Arther and Ollie M. Warren, will be listed now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

J. O. Reason, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of ARTHUR WARREN and OLLIE M. WARREN, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

JOHN F. WARREN, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

- Q State your name ? A John F. Warren.
Q How old are you ? A Fifty four.
Q What is your post office ? A Adair.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation ? A I am.
Q Do you know Arthur Warren and his sister Ollie M. Warren ?
A I do.
Q What relation are you to them, if any ?
A They are my nephew and niece.
Q Who made application for the enrollment of these children ?
A I think that my brother enrolled them.
Q George ? A Yes sir; in fact I know he did; he proposed for me to enroll them, but I told him no that he should enroll them.
Q Who is the father of these children ? A George H. Warren.
Q Is George H. Warren living now ? A He is.
Q What was their mother's name ? A Their mother's name was Belle Clingan; Belle J., perhaps, it was Belle I know, she was a sister of William Clingan.
Q She was a Cherokee by blood ? A Yes sir she was a Cherokee by blood.
Q Is she dead ? A Yes sir.
Q Since her death your brother George married again ? A Yes sir.
Q What is his present wife's name ? A Cora.
Q His first wife Belle was the mother of these children ?
A Yes sir; my brother has married a white woman, as we express it, married out, is the reason I am guardian for the children.
Q How old are these children now ? A They are sixteen and eighteen, I think.
Q Well, has your brother George lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since he was married to Belle Clingan ? A He has.
Q These children have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives ?
A Yes sir, born there.
Q Where are they living now ? A Arthur lives with me, and the girl is living with her father. My brother is living in Adair.
Q You have been appointed guardian for these children, have you ?
A Yes sir.
Q For the purpose of making these allotments ?
A Yes sir, that's the only purpose.

---Witness presents original letters of guardianship for Arthur Warren and Mary Olive Warren, issued by the United States Court for the Northern District of Indian Territory, on the 2nd day of January, 1902.

- Q Now I see, Mr. Warren, that this child--this second child--is named Mary Olive Warren in the letters of guardianship, and she has been enrolled as Ollie M.
A That's the same child with the name reversed.

Q The Arthur Warren named in these letters is the same person enrolled by George Warren ? A Yes sir.

Q This second child is known as Olive is she ?

A That's what we call her.

Q But her correct name is Mary Olive ? A Yes sir, she was named for my sister and my mother; and sister's name was Mary, and my mother's name was Olive.

Q She should be enrolled as Mary Olive then ?

A That's the way they gave me the names, and I understood it was the same they were enrolled under.

Q Who gave you the names ? A I got them from George.

Q The father of the children ? A Yes sir; they made out the affidavit petitioning that I be appointed guardian.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I.T., September 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application of David S. Cumming for the enrollment of himself and one child as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said Cumming being sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A David S. Cumming.
Q How old are you? A 48.
Q What is your post office? A Adair.
Q What is your district? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself and one child.
Q Minor child? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A By adoption.
Q Have you a marriage license and certificate? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant presents a duly authenticated Cherokee marriage license and certificate, the license issued by the Clerk of Cooweescoowee District, January 16, 1891, authorizing his marriage to Mrs. Flora B. Cumming nee Flora B. Rogers, and the certificate shows that the ceremony was performed on January 17, 1891, by the Reverend E. Manford Clard. This is filed herewith.

Q Is your wife to whom you were married at that time living?
A Yes, sir.
Q She was a Cherokee woman was she? A Cherokee by blood.
Q You are not applying for her enrollment? A No, sir.
Q Have you and she separated? A Yes, sir, she has married again.
Q When did you separate from her? A In 1893.
Q Did you procure a decree of divorce? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a copy of that decree? A No, sir, I did not bring it with me; the lawyer is here if you need any evidence.
Q Was the divorce granted to you or your wife? A Granted to me I applied for it.
Q Have you a copy at home? A Yes, sir.
Q You know whether it was granted to you if you got the decree?
A Yes, sir, it was granted to me, with the custody of the child.
Q You have the custody of the child now have you? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you married since that divorce from your wife in 1893?
A Yes, sir.
Q Let me see your license? A I have not it with me.
Q You married an Indian? A She was a Shawnee.
Q What is the date of your second marriage? A In April, 1893.
Q And what is the name of your present wife? A I have not a wife now.
Q You are not living with her? A No, sir.
Q What is the name of the woman you married in 1893? A Ida A. Carotson.
Q She is a Shawnee? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a divorce from her? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you married since that divorce? A No, sir.
Q When did you get that divorce from her? A I do not remember, it was in 1899.
Q You have not remarried? A No, sir.
Q Give me the name of your child? A Maggie E.
Q How old is that child? A She will be 17 the 13th of next month.
Com'r Breckinridge:—The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate to Cherokee citizenship, showing that on July 8, 1890, there was admitted by the Cherokee Commission Flora B. Cumming and also her daughter, Maggie E. Cumming. This is accepted as satisfactory evidence of that fact.
Q This relates to the admission of your first wife, and also for the daughter for which you apply now does it? A Yes, sir.
Q Ida A. Carotson is she on the roll of 1890? A I suppose she is.

Q Her maiden name was Purcell? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is that second wife at this time? A 37 or somewhere along there.
Q How old is your first wife at this time? A She was born in 1868.
Q Your wife was not married in 1896? A I think she married in the fall of 1896.

1896 enrollment; page 126, #817, Maggie Cummings, Cooweescoowee.
1896 enrollment; page 298, #804, David S. Cummings, Cooweescoowee.

Q Your daughter has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since your admission in 1888? A Yes, sir, she did not come here until 1890.
Q She has lived here ever since 1890? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge:—The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and child. His child is shown to have been admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission in 1888. She is living at this time and is identified on the roll of 1896. She has continued to live in the Cherokee Nation, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The applicant bases his claim to enrollment to his marriage to a Cherokee wife. His first wife is shown to have been admitted by the Cherokee Commission in 1888, and he is identified with her upon the roll of 1896. They were separated in 1895, and he states a divorce was procured, but he does not present the decree of divorce. His claim would be in doubt until a satisfactory examination could be made of the facts of this divorce. In addition to this he is shown to have married a second wife in 1897, however, he does not present a marriage license or certificate at this time. He claims that his second wife is a Cherokee woman, but she cannot be identified upon the roll of 1880 or the roll of 1896, therefore, according to the present evidence, it seems probable that whatever rights he may have possessed he lost by his second marriage. He is divorced at present from his second wife, but does not present a decree of the second divorce. The applicant has continued to live in the Cherokee Nation ever since his first marriage. The applicant at this time will be placed upon a doubtful card for further consideration, and the result when finally reached, will be made known to him.

J. O. Rosson, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Maggie E. Cumming for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS.

DAVID S. CUMMING, being sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission,

- Q What is your name? A Mine? David S. Cumming.
Q How old are you? A I am fifty years old.
Q What is your postoffice? A Adair.
Q Is Maggie E. Cumming your daughter? A Yes, sir.
Q What is her name now? A Provence.
Q She has married, has she? A Just a few days ago.
Q Since you enrolled her? A Yes, sir, I thought it would be better to change the name.

There is presented herewith a marriage-license and certificate of marriage, showing that Maggie E. Cumming was married on the 13th day of October, 1902, to James F. Provence.

- Q Is your daughter, Maggie E., living in the Cherokee Nation at this time? A Yes, sir.
Q Has she lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life? A Yes, sir, she was born in Missouri. She has been living in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Since when? A '90. 1890.
Q That was the time when her mother was admitted to citizenship? A Yes, sir, she was admitted with her mother in '87 or '88, I believe it was. We moved here in '90.
Q She has been living in the Cherokee Nation ever since she came with her mother? A Yes, sir, that has been her home; she has been away a few months to school up a Springfield, Missouri.

Retta Chick, being first duly sworn, states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she recorded the testimony and proceedings in the matter of the foregoing application, and that the above is a true and complete transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

Deciding whether to keep or sell the property is a decision that should be made by the owner, not the court. The court should not interfere with the owner's decision unless it is shown that the owner's decision is arbitrary and capricious. In this case, the court found that the owner's decision to keep the property was not arbitrary and capricious, and therefore, the court affirmed the trial court's judgment.

Q Has he resided in the Cherokee nation ever since you know him?
I don't know of him being away. He has resided here in town a good deal of the time, but I think he is living out of the district now.
Q Do you know his citizenship? A Nothing more than I know he is a Shawnee.
Q Did you ever hear his citizenship ~~questioned~~ being disputed-- is there any question about it so far as you know? A No sir.

To the applicant:

Q Did you take an allotment in the Peoria Nation? A No sir.

ROBERT IRONSIDES, being sworn, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Robert Ironsides.
Q Your age? A 56.
Q Your postoffice? A Vinita.
Q Do you know Peter Blackfish, this applicant? A Yes.
Q How long have you known him? A About 35 years.
Q How long has he been a resident of the Cherokee nation? A I have known him ever since I came here in about '71.
Q He has been living here since that time? A As far as I know, I have seen him very often.
Q You see him at frequent intervals? A Yes.
Q Has his citizenship as being a Shawnee citizen of the Cherokee Nation ever been questioned? A No sir, not as far as I know.

The name of Peter Blackfish appears upon the census roll of '96. It is not found upon the authenticated roll of '80, but his name appears in the records of the Cherokee Nation among the list of Shawnees that were removed to and located in the Cherokee Nation under the 15th article of the Cherokee treaty with the United States proclaimed August 11, 1866, number 87 on said roll. The names of his children, George T., Allie A., and Charles A., appear upon the census roll of '96 as also the name of his wife. Satisfactory proof being made as to his citizenship; also as to his residence, and he being duly identified, the said Peter Blackfish will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen of Shawnee blood as will his children, George T., Allie A., and Charles A., and his wife Mary will be listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee nation.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
MUSKOGEE, IND. TER., SEPT. 17, 1902.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Peter Blackfish et al. as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

An examination of the register of the Shawnees who removed to and located in the Cherokee Nation within two years of the 9th day of June, 1869, in accordance with an agreement entered into by and between the Shawnee tribe of Indians and the Cherokee Nation, approved by the President of the United States on June 9, 1869, shows that ^{Mary} ~~Mary~~ Blackfish is identified on that roll #88.

It is ordered that copies of this statement be filed with the testimony in this case.

Commissioner.

Ole Olson,

Afton, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. 0

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 9, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Departmental letters of May 31, 1905 (I.T.D. 6186-1905), June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12222-1905), and January 12, 1906 (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 226 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902, there are inclosed herewith affidavits as to the death of certain of said persons. The number of the enrollment card on which these persons are listed, the number opposite which they appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens, and their names are as follows:

shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Vinita Republican" was on March 9, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Secretary-S

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 21, (I.T.D. 6124-1903), June 1 (I.T.D. 6240-1903), October 4, (I.T.D. 12228-1903), and January 12, (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 288 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report was living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

Y. N. Loupp.

Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

August 9, 1906, you forwarded affidavits as to the deaths of 66 persons whose names appear on the approved rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and recommended that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee nation in the possession of the Department and the Indian Office, and that you be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved rolls in your possession, you having complied with departmental instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons.

Reporting August 23, 1906, the Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department also concurs, and you are authorized to strike the names of said persons from the copies of the approved rolls in your possession, as follows:

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 27, 1906.

Ol. Olson,

Afton, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In connection with the application for the enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of your son, Jacob W. Olson, who is shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902, you are advised that his name was stricken from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation and the application for his enrollment dismissed by the Secretary of the Interior August 29, 1906.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Frank Pettitt et al. as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

The 1880 enrollment of Frank Pettitt, as it appears in the testimony, is incorrect. The enrollment as given for said year is that of his wife, Polly. Frank Pettitt is identified on that roll at page 569, #1440a.

It is ordered that copies of this statement be filed with the testimony in this case.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., SEPTEMBER 20, 1900.

In the matter of the application of William H. Morrison for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation; said Morrison being sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your full name? A William H. Morrison.
Q How old are you? A 38.
Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
Q What district do you live in? A Delaware.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself, wife and five children.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A By adoption.
Q Your wife a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood does she claim? A One-sixteenth.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate? A Yes, sir.
Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant presents a duly authenticated Cherokee Marriage license and certificate, the license issued April 4, 1890, authorizing the marriage, in accordance with Cherokee law, between himself and wife, whose maiden name was Anna E. Crutchfield. The certificate shows that he and his wife were married in accordance with said license by the Clerk of the District, on April 6, 1890. X This is filed herewith. They have previously been married December 14, 1887 in accordance with United States law.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since your marriage in 1890? A Yes, sir.
Q And lived with your wife all the time? A Yes, sir.
Q And she is still living? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is she? A 31.
Q Is your wife a native of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Lived here all her life? A No, sir, my wife's family were admitted in 1887.
Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship, showing that on January 27, 1888, certain persons were admitted to citizenship by the Cherokee Commission; among them appears the name of Annie Crutchfield. (Is this the name of your wife? A Yes, sir.) (She was admitted under her maiden name? A Yes, sir. Q She was married to you as a matter of fact under Cherokee law? A Yes, sir.) (Q The document states that the application was made on August 22, 1887, but at the time your application was made your wife was not married; you were married in December, 1887? A Yes, sir.) This is accepted as satisfactory evidence of the facts as stated and the certificate is returned to the applicant.
Q Your wife has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since her admission? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me, now, the names of your children? A Elsie Lee.
Q How old is she? A 10.
Q Ruth is the next, how old is she? A Nine.
Q The next child? A Bessie; six.
Q The next one? A Henry C.
Q How old is he? A Four.
Q The next child? A Percy C.
Q How old is that child? A Eight months.
Q These children are all living at they? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and five children: His wife is shown by the certificate of admission cites in the testimony to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship in 1888. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since her admission and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. She is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. Her change of name is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith.

The applicant is identified with his wife on the roll of 1896. His marriage to her in accordance with Cherokee law is established by the license and certificate filed herewith, is shown to have taken place in 1890 in accordance with that law. He and his wife have lived together ever since their marriage, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption.

Of their five children, the first four enumerated in the testimony are identified with their parents on the roll of 1896. They are living at this time, and they will be listed now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. When the Commission is supplied with proper certificate of the birth of the youngest child, Leroy C. Morrison, this child also will be listed as a Cherokee by blood.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. n

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

Cherokee 3068

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 6, 1907.

William H. Morrison,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., SEPTEMBER 20, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Lafelia Petiett for enrollment of herself and child as citizens of the Cherokee nation, said Petiett being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Lafelia Petiett.
Q Your age? A 25.
Q Your postoffice? A Edna, Kans.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee nation by blood? A yes
Q What degree of blood? A 1/16.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A Myself and child.
Q What is your father's name? A Wicket.
Q What is his first name? A John.
Q What is your mother's name? A Nora.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q Is your father living? A Yes.
Q Is he a Cherokee by blood? A Yes.
Q What is the name of your child? A Andrew B.,
Q What was your husband's name? A Andy.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q When were you married to him? A I was married four years ago.
Q Where were you in '80? A In Canadian district.
Q Is your name on the roll of '80? A yes.

Applicant on '96 roll, page 57, number 1566, as Felia Pettit.

- Q Have you any certificate of readmission? A No sir.
You will have to have it.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee nation? A About 18 years.
Q Continuously? A Yes.
Q Is your husband living? A No sir.

The name of Lafelia Petiett appears upon the census roll of '96. Her name also appears upon the list of admitted and readmitted Cherokees by the National Council and Commission on citizenship in the year '80 and since that date as having been admitted by the Commission on September 25, 1882, said list being now in the hands of the representatives of the Cherokee nation, but not authentic. She avers that she has one child, Andrew B., by her husband Andrew Petiett, to whom she was married in '96. Claims to be a Cherokee citizen by blood and was readmitted as such. She will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen of Cherokee blood upon filing with this Commission a certificate of her readmission, said certificate to be executed by proper authorities of the Cherokee Nation, and her child, Andrew B., will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood when proper proof of birth is filed.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of September, 1900.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to schedule No. 8 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation heretofore forwarded to the Department, the Commission has the honor to report that the name of No. 7892 on that schedule, James G. Ballard, should be corrected to James Q. Ballard.

The testimony taken in connection with this application for enrollment, and the affidavit filed with the Commission as to the birth of this child, shows his correct name to be James Q. Ballard.

The Commission, therefore, respectfully recommends that the copies of the schedule retained by the Department and in the office of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, be corrected so that this name will appear thereon as James Q. Ballard, instead of James G. Ballard, and that the Commission be directed

Gentlemen:

Referring to the recommendation in your letter dated April 29th last, you are hereby authorized and directed to correct schedule No. 8 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, so that the name shown opposite No. 7592 thereon will appear as James Q. Ballard, instead of James G. Ballard.

The Department has changed its copy of the schedule in the above particular and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs has been directed to make the required change on the copy in his possession.

A copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter of transmittal of the 18th instant is inclosed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON, May 18, 1903.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to submit, herewith, letter of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes of the 29th ultimo, referring to No. 7592 appearing on schedule No. 8 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, the name as submitted having been James G. Ballard.

The Commission now reports that this name should be changed to James Q. Ballard. The testimony taken in connection with this application for enrollment and the affidavits filed with the commission as to the birth of the child shows his correct name to be James Q. Ballard. The commission therefore recommends that the copies of the schedule retained by the Department in this office be corrected and that this name appear thereon as James Q. Ballard instead of James G. Ballard, and that the commission be directed to make a similar change on the copies of the schedule retained by it.

I concur in this recommendation.

Very respectfully,

A. C. Tonner,

Acting Commissioner.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1903 (I.T.D. 3240-1903), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12223-1903), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Sallisaw Starr," both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Sallisaw Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 2, and the first issue in "The Sallisaw Star" was on March 9, 1906. Attention was called to Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the deceased, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

Resd, G-12.

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 21, (I.T.D. 6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D. 12228-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D. 1110-1906) relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. E. Laupp.

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

William P. Miller, postoffice Vinita, who is on Cherokee Straight card 3071 has this day appeared before the Commission and applied for the enrollment of an infant child Willie L. Miller, the same being a child born to him and Lissie E. Veir, who prior to her marriage to William P. Miller was enrolled on Cherokee Straight card 3093. He is desired to supply the Commission with his marriage license and certificate and upon receipt of that, card No. 3093 will be cancelled as far as her name is concerned, and the name of Lissie E. Veir as it appears thereon will be transferred to card 3071, straight Cherokee, where she will be enrolled as Lissie E. Miller.

This child Willie L. Miller will also be listed on Cherokee straight card 3071 as a Cherokee by blood, and copies of this statement and order will be filed with case 3071 and with case 3093.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior, Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 405), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

Commissioner.

- Q Do you know the applicant, John Blair? A Yes sir.
- Q How long since you have known him? A I knowed John Blair --well when I first knowed him he was little. I can't say how old the little fellow was but I was personally acquainted with his mother Daisy Blair. I know her well and know she had three little ones at church one day and as I was well acquainted with her I went over to her and asked her all about her children and she had three little ones playing around her and I was asking their names. Then the other day I saw her and had a talk with her and asked all about this boy of hers and she said-- I asked her why she didn't file for him and she said she didn't have enough land for two allotments now and as he was of age she couldn't do anything about his filing.
- Q When was the first time you ever knew John Blair's mother? A Why I knowed the mother in '70.
- Q How long have you lived up around Ketchum? A Why I been right there all around there for a long time.
- Q How far is Ketchum from the home of John Blair? A About six miles.
- Q How far does she live from Spavina? A About three miles.
- Q Do you know how old John Blair is? A Not exactly, no sir. Some time in '83 when I saw him. I was down to his mother's house and she had two other children and I asked all about them and their names and he has got a little sister and he was pretty good size and I was asking the names of children and I know she had John.
- Q Where have you lived since 1883? A Lived there all the time.
- Q Can you give the day the John Blair was born? A I don't know exactly just when he was born.
- Q About what time was it that you first saw him at his home? A Some time in '83 or '84. I don't know exactly.
- Q Were you at the celebration on the 4th of August in '83? A Yes sir.
- Q Was John Blair's mother there? A Yes sir, she had two children with her.
- Q How many children has John Blair's mother? A Three living at present two are dead.
- Q What are the names of the children at the time when you saw this child? A George, John, Harrison and Jennie. There's some little children born since that time.
- Q At the time of the celebration was John Blair with her? A Yes sir. Had two children with her.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children. His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life; her change of name is explained by her marriage license and certificate filed herewith, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The applicant is shown to have been married to his wife in 1887. They have lived together ever since their marriage, and he is identified with her on the roll of 1896. He will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. Of their four children, the first three are identified with their parents on the roll of 1896. They are living at this time, and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. When proper certificate is supplied of the birth of the youngest child, James G., this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned being duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of October A. D. 1900.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

SIGNED:

Bixby

Commissioner.

1896 Roll, page 20, No. 3049, Jack W. McCraig, Coowasecooee District.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and one child. He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a Native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. His wife is identified with him on the roll of 1896. The date of the marriage is stated that they were married in 1885, but does not present at this time a marriage certificate to establish the date of their marriage. The child is identified with its parents on the roll of 1896. The date of the child's birth is given as September 1895. The application for the enrollment of the mother and child will at present be placed upon a doubtful card, and the applicant is desired to supply the Commission with his certificate of marriage or an official copy thereof, and when the decision of the Commission is declared finally, it will be communicated to him at his post office address, and forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for his final approval.

The undersigned being sworn states that as stenographer to the

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Vinita, I.T. September 20th, 1900.

In the matter of the application of JAMES R. MCGRARY for the enrollment of himself, his wife and one child, as Cherokee citizens.

The said James R. McGrary, being sworn and examined by Commissioner G. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A James R. McGrary.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-nine.
Q What is your post office? A Vinita.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself, my wife and one kid.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood do you claim? A One-eighth.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee? A No, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Why, about twenty-seven years, I guess.
Q Are you on the roll of 1880? A Yes, sir.
Q From what district? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Are you on the 1895 roll from the same district? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father, please? A H. B. McGrary.
Q Cherokee or white man? A Cherokee.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is dead.
Q How long since he died? A About three months ago.
Q Your mother's given name?
A Emma.
Q Cherokee or white woman? A White woman.
Q Is she dead or alive? A She is alive.
Q Your wife's name, please? A Laura.
Q How old is she? A Twenty-four, I believe.
Q When did you marry her? A July 1898.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A No, sir; it is at Tahlequah I think though. It was sent up and recorded and I never got it back.
Q Has she lived with you ever since her marriage? A Yes, sir.
Q The name of your child, please? A Jack W.
Q How old is he? A Five years old.
Q When was that child born? A In September 1895. It is about five years old.
Q You were married in July 1898, and the child was born in September 1895, is that right? A Yes, sir.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the Commission's letter of February 3, M. C. H. 4633, directing that a copy of testimony taken in the applications for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Arizona Elizabeth Daniel, et al., Cherokee 3083, Jessie J. Daniel, Cherokee 3115, and Rosanna Freedman, et al., Cherokee 91, be forwarded to the Commission for consideration in connection with the applications made by these persons for enrollment as Mississippi Choctaws. The Commission also desires to know whether these applicants have made formal election to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

A copy of all of the testimony in each of these cases is enclosed herewith. It does not appear therefrom that any of the applicants embraced therein have made formal election to be enrolled as Choctaws.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Your present wife is a native Cherokee and has lived here all her life? A Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children. He is identified on the roll of 1880 and of 1884 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by itself.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Vinita, I.T. September 28th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF TIMOTHY B. HITCHCOCK FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HIMSELF, HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN AS CHEROKEE CIT-IZENS.

The said Timothy B. Hitchcock, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name, please. A Timothy B. Hitchcock.

Q How old are you? A Forty-two.

Q What is your postoffice? A Arden I. T.

Q What district do you live in? A Delaware District.

Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself, my wife and four children.

Q Do you apply to yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q What proportion of blood do you claim? A About one-eighth
I suppose.

Q Is your wife a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.

Q What proportion of blood? A About three-fourths.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was born here and lived here all my life.

Q From what district were you enrolled in 1880? A Tahlequah district.

Q From what district in 1896? A Tahlequah District, I think.

Q What is your wife's name? A Luch J. Hitchcock.

Q How old is she? A Nineteen.

Q When did you marry her? A I married her June 10th, 1897.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant presents a certificate showing that he was married to his wife on June 10th, 1897, by the Rev.
S. M. Creecher.

Q What was it you called your wife's name? A Luch J. Mained.

THE COMMISSIONER: This paper is filed herewith.

Q What was the name of her mother? A Hallie Mained.

Q Is she dead or alive? A Living.

Q What is the name of her father? A Clayburn Mained.

Q Is he dead or alive? A Living.

Q Give me the names of these children. A Charles D. Hitchcock.

Q How old is that child? A Eighteen years old.

Q The next child? A William I. Hitchcock.

Q How old is he? A Sixteen.

Q The next child? A Edward C.

Q How old is that child? A Fourteen.

Q The next child? A Lela M.

Q How old is she? A She is seven months old.

Q The first three of these children were children by a former wife were't they?

Q The children are all living now are they? A Yes, sir.

Q What was the name of your former wife? A Her maiden name was Annie L. Shady.

Q How old was she when she died? A She is not dead. She is a divorced wife.

Q Well, how old is she now? A I don't know her exact age--it must be about 40. I suppose, right along about there. I can't say.

Q Was she a Cherokee? A A Cherokee by blood.

Q When did you marry her? A I married her in 1890. I believe Q Is she on the roll of 1890 as your wife? A Yes. I think she is on the roll of 1890 as the daughter of her father, as Shirley.
Q When were you divorced? A In 1893.
Q You lived with her from the time of your marriage until you were divorced in 1893? A I didn't live with her a year before
I was divorced, but up to a year before that time I did.

1896 Roll, page 1181, No. 1374, Edward C. Hitchcock, Tahlequah
District.

Q Your present wife is a native Cherokee and has lived here
all her life? A Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children. He is identified on the roll of 1890 and of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

His wife is identified on the roll of 1890 under her maiden name. The marriage certificate filed herewith establishes her change of name. She is too young to be on the roll of 1890, but her mother is identified on that roll as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Of their four children, the first three are by a former wife. She is identified on the roll of 1890 as a native Cherokee; she is living at this time, but died to her husband in 1890, and divorced from him in 1890. These three children are identified with their father on the roll of 1890, and they will be listed for enrollment now as Cherokees by blood. When the Commission is supplied with a proper certificate of the birth of the youngest child, Belle E., a child of the present marriage, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER.

- Q What is your name? A David T. Witt.
Q What is your age? A 33.
Q What is your post office address?
A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q What is your father's name? A Felix H. Witt.
Q Is he a white man? A Yes sir.
Q He claims the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of his marriage to a Cherokee by blood?
A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the Cherokee citizen through whom he claims the right to enrollment?
A Jane Sherman.
Q She is your mother? A Yes sir.
Q It is your understanding that your father and mother were married in the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q And that your mother was a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation at the time of their marriage?
A Yes sir.
Q They are both living at this time?
A As far as I know.
Q Where are they living? A Canada.
Q When did they go to Canada?
A They went to Canada in the month of November, 1901, about the 10th of November.
Q Prior to that time, did they reside in the Cherokee Nation continuously since their marriage?
A Yes sir.
Q Since 1901 have they made their home continuously in Canada?
A Yes sir.
Q They have not been in the Cherokee Nation since they went to 1901?
A No sir.
Q To your knowledge, has your father, Felix H. Witt, bought property in Canada?
A I don't know anything about it, only just what I hear; it is my information that he owns land in Canada.
Q And he is making that his home now?
A Yes sir.
Q When he left the Cherokee Nation, did he leave any property in the Cherokee Nation?
A I don't know.

C. F. B.

Cherokee 3090.

- Q Do you know whether or not he disposed of any property that he had here at the time he did leave?
- A Why, he sold his horses and cattle, most of his implements and household furniture.
- Q Is it your understanding that when he and your mother left the Cherokee Nation to go to Canada, that their intention was to make Canada their permanent home?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Does your father own a home in the Cherokee Nation?
- A Yes sir.
- Q A farm is it or house and lot?
- A He has his filing here, - improvements.
- Q Is that the only property he has in the Nation in the way of real property?
- A All that I have any knowledge of.
- Q The land that he filed on as an applicant for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
- A As far as I know.

BY MR. HASTINGS,

- Q Have you ever been to Canada? A No sir.
- Q Your information is that your father owns a tract of land in Canada?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Does he farm there?
- A Why, he raises some stock and I suppose he farms on a small scale.
- Q And he has been there since November, 1901?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Has he any minor children? A Yes sir.
- Q Has he any children with him in Canada?
- A Yes sir.
- Q What are their names?
- A The minor is De Witt.
- Q Are some of his adult children there with him?
- A One.
- Q What is his name? Michael O.

Being G. Sharnley being first duly sworn by Mrs. Lynn E. Lane, testified as follows:

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER.

- Q What is your name? A Being G. Sharnley.
- Q What is your age? A 40 years old.
- Q What is your post office address? A Adair.
- Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know a person by the name of Felix H. Witt?
- A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you known him?
- A I have known him ever since I can remember.
- Q How long has he been married?
- A Yes sir.
- Q What is his wife's name? A Jane.
- Q She is a citizen by blood? A Yes sir.

- Q He is a white man? A Yes sir.
 Q Do you remember when they were married?
 A I don't remember just exactly but it was in time of the war.
 Q Are they living in the Cherokee nation at this time?
 A No sir.
 Q When did they leave the Cherokee Nation?
 A November, I think, about 1901, the best I can remember.
 Q From the time you first remember knowing them, did they continuously live together as husband and wife and live in the Cherokee Nation until they left in 1901?
 A Well, they was married in Texas and came here in '65 or '66 and have been living here ever since until they went to Canada.
 Q You knew them continuously did you until 1901?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Where were they living just prior to going to Canada?
 A Down here close to a little town called Kansas.
 Q Did they own property there? A Yes sir.
 Q Was it the property of Felix H. Witt, do you know?
 A I suppose so; he bought the land.
 Q You were living near them, were you?
 A I guess it was 35 miles.
 Q You don't know whether or not Felix H. Witt sold that place when he left the Cherokee nation?
 A Only what they said.
 Q What is your understanding?
 A Sold it to a man by the name of Karnes.
 Q What was the condition of the health of Felix H. Witt when he left the Cherokee Nation, do you know?
 A Well, he was getting old and kind of feeble and seemed to be kind of a wreck.
 Q Was his ill health caused from his age or some other cause?
 A Well, I can't say.
 Q Did you have a talk with Felix H. Witt just prior to his leaving the Cherokee Nation?
 A No sir.
 Q He didn't talk with you then, as to where he was going and what he was going to do?
 A No, I didn't see him after he sold out.
 Q You know nothing about his intentions then when he left the Cherokee Nation?
 A No sir.
 Q You haven't seen him since November, 1901. A No sir.
 Q It is your understanding that he has lived continuously in Canada since then?
 A Yes sir.

The undersigned being first duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, she recorded the testimony taken in this case and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

- Q What is your name? A William H. Daugherty.
Q What is your age? A 43.
Q What is your post office address? A Grove, Indian Territory.
Q You appear here for the purpose of giving testimony relative to the right to enrollment of Felix H. Witt as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Is Felix H. Witt living or dead?
A Can't answer that question; he was living the last I heard of him.
Q When was the last time you heard of him?
A When he left here I think and went to Canada.
Q What year was that? A I don't remember.
Q He is a white man? A Yes sir; said to be.
Q He claims the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of his marriage to a citizen by blood?
A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the citizen through whom he claims the right to enrollment?
A I don't remember her given name; she was a Cherokee, as far as I remember.
Q How long have you known Felix H. Witt?
A I cannot say how long it has been; when I was a small boy, I lived alone to him in Going Snake District.
Q Did you know him before he was married?
A No sir.
Q Do you know when he was married?
A No sir.
Q Did you ever know him after he was married?
A Yes sir.
Q Did you meet his wife, Mrs. Witt, after their marriage?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you have of your own personal knowledge that they resided together as husband and wife in the Cherokee Nation for a number of years?

A Yes sir.

Q During the time you knew him, was he recognized as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes sir.

Q Enjoys all the rights and privileges of that class of citizens?

A Yes sir.

Q Did he ever hold any office?

A No sir; none that I know of.

Q But he was recognized by those who knew him as a citizen by intermarriage?

BY MR. HASTINGS.

Q How old are you?

A 43.

Q Have you known Felix H. Witt and his wife ever since you can remember?

A Yes sir.

Q When you can first remember, did you live in the same district that they lived in?

A Yes sir.

Q And about how far from them? A 3 or 4 miles.

Q Do you think you could remember them from the time you were 6 or 8 years of age or 10 years of age?

A I can't say how old I was; I was quite a small boy.

Q Do you remember them ever since you can remember anyone?

A Yes.

Q When you first recollect back, say when you were 10 or 12 years of age, were they living in the neighborhood that you were in and in the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes sir.

Q And were they at that time living together and recognized as husband and wife?

A Yes sir.

Q And this woman with whom he then lived was formerly named Sherman?

A Yes sir.

Q And so far as you know, as long as he lived in the Cherokee Nation, he lived with this woman as his wife?

A Yes sir; he did.

Q You never heard of either of them having been previously married?

A No sir.

Q Did he have any children that you know of by a former wife?

A No sir; none that I ever knew of.

Felix Witt being first duly sworn by B. F. Humes, Notary Public, testified as follows:

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER.

Q What is your name?

A Tipton Witt.

C. F. B.

Cherokee 3090.

Q What is your age? A About 22.
Q What is your post office address.
A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q What is the name of your father?
A Felix Nelson Witt.
Q Is he living?
A Yes sir; was three weeks ago.
Q He is a white man? A Yes sir.
Q He is an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your mother?
A Her full name is Isabella Jane Ghornley, before marriage.
Q Isabella Jane Witt now? A Yes.
Q She is a Cherokee by blood? A I suppose so.
Q Did you ever hear it said that your father was married prior to his marriage to your mother?
A No sir.
Q Was your mother to your knowledge ever married before she married your father?
A No sir.
Q Where were you born?
A I don't know; I guess I was born in Delaware District,-- to the best of my knowledge.
Q Where were you living when you can first remember?
A Delaware District, near Westville.
Q Your father and mother were residing together as husband and wife at that time?
A Yes sir.
Q When did your father leave the Cherokee Nation?
A I believe it was 1902; probably the latter part of 1901.
Q Did your mother leave the Cherokee Nation at the same time?
A Yes sir.
Q Where did they go?
A Province of Alberta, Canada.
Q Did they settle up there in Canada?
A Yes sir.
Q And have since made that their home?
A Yes sir.
Q Have your father and mother resided together as husband and wife continuously since you can remember?
A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS.

Q And are now?

A Yes sir.

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER.

Q You say your mother's maiden name was Isabella J. Ghornley?
A Yes.

The original marriage records, Flint District, Cherokee Nation, Packet 3 of said records in the possession of the Commissioner, shows that on the 10th day of May, 1900, license was issued by Jas. E. Adair, Chief District Court Flint District, Cherokee Nation, authorizing the marriage of Felix W. Witt and Isabella J. Ghormley, and that said parties were united in marriage in accordance with the terms of said license May 17, 1868, by Michael Ghormley, Minister of the Gospel.

The applicant, Felix W. Witt is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1860, Going Snake District, No. 2002. His wife, Jane Witt, by virtue of his marriage to whom he claims the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, is identified on said roll at No. 203, Going Snake District, and as Jane Witt, she appears upon the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, opposite No. 7649.

BY MR. HASTINGS.

- Q Your father had been summoned down here in the fall of 1902?
- A If he had ever been summoned, I don't know anything about it.
- Q When the intermarried people were summoned down here in 1902, your father had already gone to Canada?
- A I suppose he was; he had never been notified to come. After I came back I heard them talking about the white people coming down here and I told them my father hadn't been summoned.
- Q Did you go to Canada too? A Yes sir.
- Q Don't you know when you went?
- A It was 1901 or 1902; I don't remember.
- Q How old are you? A 22 I think.
- Q We started in making this roll in 1900; where did your father make his first application?
- A I suppose he went to Vinita; he was enrolled at Vinita.
- Q Where did you live before you went to Canada?
- A Long Prairie.
- Q Do you remember of your father going to Westville?
- A I remember the Dawes Commission being there but he never went there. He was enrolled at Vinita and I think it was in November, 1901, that we went to Canada.

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER/

- Q Did he take all his effects with him when he went to Canada?
- A He had some property here.
- Q Does he own property here in the Nation now?
- A He owns land and some improvements on the land.
- Q He has property interests in the Cherokee Nation now?
- A Yes sir.

The undersigned being first duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, she recorded the testimony taken in this case and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 1st, 1902.

Felix F. Witt,

Kansas, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902, and entitled "An Act To provide for the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, for the disposition of town sites therein, and for other purposes," (Public No. 241), provides that "the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen-hundred and two."

In accordance with said provision, you are hereby notified that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will be at its offices at Muskogee, Indian Territory, until Friday, October 31, 1902, inclusive, for the purpose of affording you an opportunity to show that you have not, between the date of the original application for your enrollment and Sept 2, 1902, forfeited your right as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

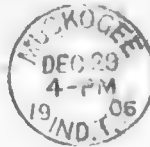

This evidence should be introduced immediately, as it is necessary in determining your right to share in the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, and until the same is furnished no further action can be taken looking toward your final enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 24, 1906.

Felix F. Witt,

~~South~~ Kansas, Is.

Dear Sir:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your wife, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time of your marriage to her, and whether or not you were married to her in accordance with Cherokee laws.

You are therefore directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock, A. M., on Friday January 4, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 7, 1907

Tipton Witt,
Kansas, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

This office is in receipt of your letter of December 29, 1906, in which you state that your father, Felix W. Witt, is in Canada, and by reason of his blindness and feeble health is unable to appear before the Commissioner in connection with his application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. You ask information in the premises.

In reply you are advised that the record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of your father, Felix W. Witt, will be examined, and if it is found necessary for further evidence to be introduced you will be advised thereof, and he will be given an opportunity to introduce the same.

If your father has a marriage license, or a certificate of marriage, he should forward same to this office by return mail to be used in connection with his case.

Sir:

The Commissioner sent you this day the following telegram:

"Further evidence of marriage your father necessary in his case. Produce witnesses to marriage immediately."

The Act of Congress approved April 20, 1906, provides that the Secretary of the Interior shall have no jurisdiction to approve the enrollment of any person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation after March 6, 1907.

This matter therefore demands your immediate attention.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of FELIX F. WITT as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Vinita, Indian Territory September, 20, 1900 application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Felix F. Witt as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory on January 22, 1907 and February 6, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Felix F. Witt, a white man, was married in accordance with Cherokee law May 17, 1888 to one Jane Witt, nee Chumley, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Going Snake District No. 2003 as a native Cherokee, and whose name is included on the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation opposite No. 7649. It is further shown that from the time of said marriage the said Felix F. Witt and Jane Witt resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation until November, 1901, when they removed to Canada for the purpose of making it their permanent home, thereby forfeiting all rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation formerly possessed by themselves.

Section 2, Article 1 of the Cherokee Constitution in part provides:

"Whenever any citizen shall remove with his effects out of the limits of this Nation and become a citizen of any other Government, all his rights and privileges as a citizen of this Nation shall cease".

In view of the foregoing it is considered that the said Felix F. Witt, by his removal from the Cherokee Nation in November, 1901, forfeited, under the provisions of Section 2, Article 1 of the Cherokee Constitution above noted, whatever rights he may have possessed to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Felix F. Witt, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 25, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

missioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name please. A Charles H. Purcell.
Q How old are you? A Thirty-eight.
Q What is your post office? A Big Cabin.
Q In what district do you live? A Delaware.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself, wife and four children.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir; a Shawnee.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee? A No, sir a white woman.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Thirty years.
Q Are you on the roll of 1890? A Yes, sir.
Q From what district? A Coowescoowee, I think.
Q From what district in 1896? A Delaware.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation for the last thirty years? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me now please your wife's name. A Amanda H.
Q How old is she? A Twenty-seven.
Q When did you marry her? A In 1891.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes, sir. Her maiden name was Simpson.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate showing that he was married on January 12th, 1891, in accordance with his license, to his wife, as stated by him, by the Rev. D. N. Allen. These are filed herewith.

A Her first husband was a Daugherty and a Shawnee, but she was a Shawnee also, a Shawnee by blood.

Q Is your mother living? A Yes, sir.

Q Where is she? A She is in town now.

Q And she claims to be a Shawnee by blood? A Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children. He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a Cherokee Shawnee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation for the last thirty years, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee-Shawnee. His wife is shown by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith to have been married to him in 1891. She is identified on the roll of 1896. She has lived with the applicant ever since her marriage, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. Of their four children, the first three are identified with their parents on the roll of 1896. They are living at this time, and they will be listed for enrollment on a straight card, and when the Commission is supplied with a proper certificate of the birth of the youngest child, Edith E., it also will be listed for enrollment on a straight card.

Additional testimony.

David Daugherty, being sworn and examined, testified before Commissioner Needles as follows:

Mr. W. V. Hastings, representative of Cherokee Nation: Do you know the woman who is on the Shawnee roll as Harriett Purcell and her son Charles Purcell? A I know her, but I don't know the boy at all, I have heard of him is all.

Q Who was Harriett Purcell and what was her blood? A She is a white woman.

Q State how you know? A It has been tested in our Council, I used to be a member of the Shawnee Council, and it was tried; she is kin to Captain Parks, our Principal Chief of the Shawnee Tribe, but it is on the white blood, Captain Parks is very nearly a white man.

Q Who was Harriett Purcell's first husband? A Lewis Daugherty, he was my cousin.

Q Lewis Daugherty was a Shawnee by blood? A Yes, sir, just the same as I am.

Q And that was the way she became adopted? A That is the way she became adopted into the tribe.

Q Do you know her Purcell husband? A Yes, sir, knew him well.

Q Was he a Shawnee by blood? A No, sir, he was a white man.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Harriett Ross.

In the matter of the application of Charles Purcell.

Additional testimony.

David Daugherty, being sworn and examined, testified before Commissioner Needles as follows:

Mr. W. W. Hastings, representative of Cherokee Nation: Do you know the woman who is on the Shawnee roll as Harriett Purcell and her son Charles Purcell? A I know her, but I don't know the boy at all, I have heard of him is all.

Q Who was Harriett Purcell and what was her blood? A She is a white woman.

Q State how you know? A It has been tested in our Council, I used to be a member of the Shawnee Council, and it was tried: she is kin to Captain Parks, our Principal Chief of the Shawnee Tribe, but it is on the white blood, Captain Parks is very nearly a white man.

Q Who was Harriett Purcell's first husband? A Lewis Daugherty, he was my cousin.

Q Lewis Daugherty was a Shawnee by blood? A Yes, sir, just the same as I am.

Q And that was the way she became adopted? A That is the way she became adopted into the tribe.

Q Do you know her Purcell Husband? A Yes, sir, know him well.

Q Was he a Shawnee by blood? A No, sir, he was a white man.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

In the matter of making proof of the marriage of Jincy J. England to her Cherokee husband, prior to November 1, 1875.

Benjamin C. England, being sworn by W. W. Chappell, a Notary Public, testified as follows:

COMMISSIONER:

- Q. What is your name? A. Benjamin C. England.
- Q. What is your age? A. 59.
- Q. What is your post office address? A. Afton, I.T.
- Q. You appear in whose behalf here today? A. My wife, Jincy J. England.
- Q. You are a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Your wife, Jincy J. England, claims citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Through you? A. Yes sir.
- Q. When were you married to her? A. We were married in the spring of '69 -- in March.
- Q. Where were you married? A. In Delaware District, Cherokee Nation.
- Q. Were you married under a Cherokee license? A. No sir. There were no licenses issued to citizens that married white women then -- if there was I never heard of it.
- Q. Who performed the ceremony? A. A. The judge of the District -- Eloway Butler.
- Q. Have you any documentary evidence covering this marriage? A. No sir.
- Q. Do you know what record was made of your marriage? A. I do not.
- Q. Is the Judge, who performed the ceremony, living at this time? A. No sir, he is dead.
- Q. Is there anyone here today who was present at your marriage? A. Yes sir. Dave McGee is here, and he was present.
- Q. Were you ever married prior to your marriage to Jincy J. England? A. No sir.
- Q. Was she ever married prior to the time she married you? A. No sir.
- Q. Is she living at this time? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Have you lived together continuously as man and wife since your marriage? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Where? A. In Delaware District, Cherokee Nation.
- Q. Why didn't your wife appear here today? A. She wasn't hardly able, and another thing, she is a very large, fleshy woman, and couldn't get on and off the trains, etc. It was almost impossible for her to come without someone coming with her.
- Q. Do you know anyone else who is living at the present time who was present at your marriage? A. Yes sir.
- Q. What are their names? A. Cobb Welch's wife at Grove, I.T., and I think, if I am not mistaken, that Joe Fox's wife was present. They are the daughters of Judge Butler, and I think they were both present at that time. And also Bill Butler, the old man's son, and Joe Ward was present at that time.

Witness excused.

(The applicant, Jincy J. England, and her husband, Benjamin C. England, appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, opposite Nos. 937 and 936 respectively, Delaware District. Benjamin C. England is also included in the approved partial roll, opposite No. 16601.)

David A. McGee, being sworn by W. W. Chappell, a Notary Public, testified as follows:

COMMISSIONER:

- Q. What is your name? A. David A. McGee.
Q. What is your age? A. 68.
Q. What is your post office address? A. Dodge, Indian Territory.
Q. Are you related to Benjamin C. and Jincy J. England in any way?
A. No sir.
Q. How long have you known these people? A. I have known Benjamin C. England since we were boys.
Q. Were you present at their marriage? A. I don't remember positively whether I was or not, but I think I was. We were young folks together.
Q. Do you know where they were married? A. At Judge Butler's I think.
Q. When? A. As well as I remember either in '69 or '70.
Q. Do you know whether or not they were married under a Cherokee license? A. There were no Cherokee licenses issued at that time for a Cherokee man to marry a white woman.
Q. Do you know who performed the ceremony? A. I am not positive but I think though — if I ain't mistaken — I wouldn't be positive, but I think Judge Butler, a full blood Methodist preacher I used to interpret for him.
Q. Do you remember whether or not this marriage of Benjamin C. and Jincy J. England was in accordance with the customs of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir it was.
Q. Did Benjamin C. and Jincy J. England live together free from that time on as man and wife? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did they reside in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
Q. How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. I was born and raised here.
Q. Are you a citizen by blood? A. Yes sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of JINCY J. ENGLAND as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Vinita, Indian Territory, September 20, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Jincy Jane England as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 1, 1902, and January 4, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Jincy J. England, a white woman, married in the year 1869 one Benjamin C. England, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, whose name appears on the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, opposite No. 7640, and who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Delaware District, No. 934, as a native Cherokee; and that from the time of said marriage the said Benjamin C. England and Jincy Jane England resided together as husband and wife, and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation up to and including September 1, 1902. Said Jincy J. England is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and the Cherokee census roll of 1896, as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 2, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Jincy J. England, is entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1906 (34 Stats., 496), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 24, 1906.

Jinny J. England,

Aften, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your husband, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized Cherokee citizen at the time of your marriage to him.

You are therefore directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Friday, January 4, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

H. J. G.

Acting Commissioner.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and two children. He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee; he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. His wife is identified with her husband on the roll of 1896, and she is shown to have been married to him in April 1896--the certificate of the marriage is filed herewith. She has lived with him ever since their marriage, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. Their child Pearl is identified on the roll of 1896; she is living now and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. When a proper certificate of birth is supplied the Commission for the child Kenneth B. Perry, this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in the above application for enrollment, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

Examined by J. C. Starr:

Q Are you sure that your wife Alice A. was included in the application of 1896? A No sir, I am not; I am sure it was included at Vinita; I don't know how it was when we were admitted. I don't know how it was, it was given in on the petition.

Q It went in on the original petition? A Yes sir.

Q You are sure about that? A I say I aint sure that it went in on the original petition.

By the Commissioner:

Q When you say you are sure it was put in at Vinita, you mean you applied for her when you came before us the last time?

A Yes sir.

Q As a matter of fact don't you know that you did not apply for your wife in 1896?

A I don't know. I went before the Commission at Fort Smith, me and my attorney went together, and there was a roll, and what names were taken I don't know.

Q You don't know of your own knowledge that it was included?

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Alice A. Edwards as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation:

D E C I S I O N .

The record in this case shows that on September 20, 1900, Stephen D. C. Edwards appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, and made personal application for the enrollment of his wife, Alice A. Edwards, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The application also embraces himself and five minor children but they have been included in the partial list of Cherokee citizens by blood, approved by the Secretary of the Interior November 14, 1902. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 27, 1902.

The evidence shows that the applicant was lawfully married on February 12, 1877, to Stephen D. C. Edwards, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), and by the United States Court on appeal.

It further appears that the applicant, Alice A. Edwards, was not included in the original application of her husband and others for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by this Commission under said Act of Congress of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321), nor in the application for appeal to the United States Court, Northern District Indian Territory, but was admitted by the court judgment as Mrs. S. D. C. Edwards. (See case of Eljerry Fleetwood et al. vs. Cherokee Nation, #252, citizenship docket #1, U. S. Court, Northern District Indian Territory.)

The evidence further shows that the applicant has lived with her husband in the Cherokee Nation continuously since her admission to citizenship in 1896 up to and including September 1, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Alice A. Edwards should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
Vinita, I.T., February 10th., 1908.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION FOR ENROLLMENT OF ALICE A. EDWARDS AS A CITIZEN BY INTER-MARRIAGE OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

Cherokee 3100

PROTEST OF THE CHEROKEE NATION

Come now the Cherokee Nation and respectfully protests against the decision of the Commission rendered in the above case on February 2nd., 1908, and asks that the same be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review.

The applicant is the wife of Stephen D. C. Edwards, who was admitted to citizenship by the United States Court for the Northern District of the Indian Territory in 1899 upon appeal from the Dawes Commission, which rejected him under the Act of June 10th., 1906.

It will be noted that the name of the applicant herself was not included in the application made by her husband, and that he was not a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation himself until after he was admitted by the United States Court upon appeal from the Commission; and the Cherokee Nation contends that if her husband was not a recognized citizen before December 10th., 1906, when the Cherokee Nation passed an Act specifying that no white person should be entitled to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation who inter-married with a Cherokee citizen after the 10th. day of December, 1906, and referred to in Section 26 of the Cherokee Agreement (See Public Statute No. 341) This agreement recognized the validity of the Act of December 10th., 1906, and our contention is that the husband of the applicant must have been a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation prior to December 10th., 1906, and she must have been his recognized wife, because, suppose the applicant had married her husband on the day he was admitted by the United States Court in 1899, and that was the earliest time he was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation, she, under the law, would not have been entitled to enrollment in the Cherokee 3100---Sheet No. 2.

Cherokee Nation. In case her husband was a full blood at that time, she could not have become a citizen by inter-marriage of the Cherokee Nation. We contend that the Rogers case does not apply to this case, and neither does the Hampton case apply, because both of these cases refer to the times when the marriage of a white woman to a Cherokee citizen entitled her to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation; or, in other words, her marriage prior to December 10th., 1906. Certainly a white woman marrying a Cherokee man can have no more rights than a white man marrying a Cherokee woman, and neither could have acquired any rights if they married after December 10th., 1906; in other words, we contend that the distinction between this case and the cases cited by the Commission is that in those cited by the Commission both were recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood long before December 10th., 1906, whereas in the present case, the applicant was not the recognized wife of a recognized citizen until after his admission in 1909, or about three or four years after the passage of the Act of December 10th., 1906, and therefore too late to acquire citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by inter-marriage.

Respectfully submitted,

--- M. V. Hastings ---
Attorney for the Cherokee Nation

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860, 861, 862, 863, 864, 865, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 875, 876, 877, 878, 879, 880, 881, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886, 887, 888, 889, 890, 891, 892, 893, 894, 895, 896, 897, 898, 899, 900, 901, 902, 903, 904, 905, 906, 907, 908, 909, 910, 911, 912, 913, 914, 915, 916, 917, 918, 919, 920, 921, 922, 923, 924, 925, 926, 927, 928, 929, 930, 931, 932, 933, 934, 935, 936, 937, 938, 939, 940, 941, 942, 943, 944, 945, 946, 947, 948, 949, 950, 951, 952, 953, 954, 955, 956, 957, 958, 959, 960, 961, 962, 963, 964, 965, 966, 967, 968, 969, 970, 971, 972, 973, 974, 975, 976, 977, 978, 979, 980, 981, 982, 983, 984, 985, 986, 987, 988, 989, 990, 991, 992, 993, 994, 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, 1000.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

(COPY)

December 8, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report of Mr. Dixey, former chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 18, 1903, transmitting record in the matter of the application of Stephen C. Edwards for the enrollment of his wife, Alice A. Edwards, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, including the Commission's decision dated February 2, 1903, granting the application. A protest against the enrollment of the applicant, filed with the Commission by the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, is also enclosed.

Alice A. Edwards, a white woman, claims the right to enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by reason of her marriage on February 12, 1877, to Stephen D. C. Edwards, a Cherokee citizen by blood. The record shows that the applicant has lived with her husband in the Cherokee Nation continuously up to and including September 1, 1902.

Under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al., versus the United States, the applicant is not entitled to enrollment, and it is recommended that her application be denied, and the decision of the Commission admitting her to citizenship be reversed.

Very respectfully,

E. E. Darrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

L.R.S.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

December 2, 1906 (Land 12834-1903), the Indian Office submitted the record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Alice A. Edwards as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and recommended that the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes of February 2, 1903, in favor of the applicant, be reversed.

In view of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al., citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, and Francis F. Fite et al., claiming to be entitled to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage, the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes of February 2, 1903, is reversed.

The papers in the case have been sent to the Indian Office for its files.

Respectfully,

Thos. Ryan.

Ida Lee Ballenger et al 2

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and one child; her husband appears with her in the application, and is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life; her change of name is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. When the Commission is supplied with a proper certificate of the birth of the child, Alma L. Ballenger, this child will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. As regards the application for the enrollment of her husband, he is a white man, and is shown to have been married in 1897, and to have married in accordance with United States law, and not in accordance with Cherokee law; therefore the applicant's husband has never been admitted to Cherokee citizenship in any form, and he is not upon any roll of the Cherokee Nation, and the Commission has no jurisdiction over his case; a memorandum will be made of his application being rejected for lack of jurisdiction; if he desires this reported to the Secretary of the Interior, it will be done upon receipt of his written request to that effect.

M D. Green being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 22 day of September 1900.

- Q What is your name? A Susie Fox.
Q How old are you? A Going on thirty-three.
Q What is your post office address? A White Oak.
Q You are a Cherokee citizen of Muscogee blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know David Daugherty? A Yes, sir.
Q Was he your grand father? A Yes, sir.
Q He has a son named Frank Daugherty? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember the date of the death of David Daugherty?
A No I don't believe I knew when he died. He died at Fairland.
Q Your step-father was named Henry F. A. Rogers? A Yes, sir.
Q You have a daughter who is now about fifteen years old? A Yes.
Q And you say your daughter was about six years old when Henry F. A. Rogers died? A Yes, sir.
Q Henry F. A. Rogers died in the summer when your daughter was six years old? A Yes, sir.
Q And David Daugherty died the next summer? A Yes, sir.

Frank Daugherty, being first duly sworn testified as follows -

EXAMINATION ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER BY J. C. ROSSON.

- Q What is your name? A Frank Daugherty.
Q How old are you? A Forty-nine.
Q What is your post office address? A White Oak.
Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of your father? A David Daugherty.
Q Is he living? A No, sir.
Q Do you remember the date of his death? A Not just exactly; it was about the 5th day of August; I wouldn't be positive about that, but it was in the early part of August.
Q Of what year? A I can't say just now; I have a memorandum book at home and the date is put down in that. It was in 1900 or 1901, though.
Q You are sure it was not later than 1901? A Yes, sir.
Q According to the records, Mr. Daugherty, he applied for enrollment on September 20, 1900, and, if he died in August, it must have been 1901? A Yes, sir; I brought him here to enroll, and he was in a bad condition at that time.
Q Was his father's name Jacob Daugherty? A I can't say.
Q Has he a daughter named Eliza Kahn? A Yes, sir.
Q You know he died too soon to be entitled to an allotment of land? A Yes, sir.
Q No one ever tried to file for him for that reason? A No, sir. I was going to file for him but found out that he died too soon, so I just let it drop.
Q Is there anyone else here today that knows the date of your father's death? A No, sir; I think not.
Q Was your father's post office address Fairland when he was enrolled? A Yes, sir.

Madam:

Evidence has been secured by this office showing that your grand-father, David Daugherty, whose name appears on the roll of Cherokee citizens by blood opposite No. 7680, died in August, 1901.

The Act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716) contains the following provision:

"That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two. The right of such person to any interest in the lands or other tribal property shall be deemed to have become extinguished and to have passed to the tribe in general upon his death before said date, and any person or persons who may conceal the death of anyone on said roll as aforesaid for the purpose of profiting by said concealment, and who shall knowingly receive any portion of any land or other tribal property or of the proceeds so arising from any allotment prohibited by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be proceeded against as may be provided in other cases of felony, and the penalty for this offense shall be confinement at hard labor for a period of not less than one year nor more than five years, and in addition thereto a forfeiture to the Cherokee Nation of the lands, other tribal property, and proceeds so obtained."

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Oklahoma,

Sir:

Your communication of the 5th, ultimo, addressed to Miss Susie Fox, White Oak, Oklahoma, was handed this office for reply. You are respectfully advised that the heirs of David Daugherty, deceased, Cherokee roll No. 7680, are fully aware that deceased died prior to September 1st, 1902, and that under the Act of Congress approved July 1st, 1902, he would not be entitled to an allotment; that it is agreeable that the notation "Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money" be placed opposite the name of David Daugherty on the approved roll of Cherokee citizens.

Respectfully,

Subject:
Enrollment of David
Daugherty - Cherokee.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to the attention of the Department the case of David Daugherty, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation enrolled opposite No. 7680.

The record showing in this case that no application to select an allotment had been made, an investigation was instituted to ascertain whether this citizen was living, or if dead, the date of his death.

On June 8, 1909, the testimony of Frank Daugherty, son of David Daugherty, was taken, in which he stated that his father died in the early part of August, 1900 or 1901, he was not sure as to which year. The records show, however, that application for the enrollment of David Daugherty was made on September 20, 1900. Frank Daugherty states that he was present with his father at the time of this application and that he was in very poor health at this time.

He testified further that he knew his father died too soon to be entitled to an allotment and for that reason as application to select an allotment was made.

On June 11, 1902, the testimony of Susan Fox, granddaughter of David Daugherty, was taken, and while she did not remember the year of the death of her grand-father, she fixed it by the death of her step-father and the age of one of her children as occurring in 1901.

On October 5, 1902, Susie Fox, a grand-daughter, and Frank Daugherty and Eliza Kuhn, son and daughter of David Daugherty, were advised by registered mail of the information received by this office relative to the date of the death of David Daugherty and of the provisions of Section 31 of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), that no person whose name was on the roll of Cherokee citizens and who died prior to September 1, 1902, was entitled to an allotment of land or other tribal property, and advised that they might within a stipulated time appear at this office to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department that a notation be placed on the roll showing that the said David Daugherty was not entitled to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Cherokee Nation. The notices addressed to Susie Fox and Frank Daugherty were received as is evidenced by the return of the registry receipts properly signed, but the notice addressed to Eliza Kuhn has been returned unclaimed.

Secretary - 2.

No appearance in response to these notices has been made, but H. C. Unsoy, District Agent at Vinita, Oklahoma, on November 1, advised the office that the heirs of David Daugherty, deceased, were aware that he died prior to September 1, 1902, and that he was, therefore, not entitled to an allotment, and that his objection to the placing of the proposed notation on the approved roll would be offered.

There appears to be no doubt whatever that David Daugherty died prior to September 1, 1902, and I, therefore, respectfully recommend that the following notation be placed upon all copies of the approved roll of Cherokee citizens opposite the name of David Daugherty, No. 7580:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

Copies of the record pertaining to the death of this citizen are enclosed herewith.

Before me in and for said District and Territory appeared Thomas Dougherty of lawful age who being duly sworn deposes and says That I am 54 years of age and a Shawnee Indian by birth and blood and I came to the Cherokee Nation prior to June 10 1871 and have resided here ever since and am a member of the Cherokee Nation per Agreement between the Shawnees and Cherokees.

I am personally acquainted with Daisy Dougherty from the time of her birth to the present time. Lived within a half mile of her when she was born and I recorded her birth in the family Bible and know that she was born on the fifteenth (15) day of July in the eight hundred and eighty one, 1881 and I have known her whereabouts ever since and to my own personal knowledge I know that she has always resided in the Cherokee Nation Indian Territory since her birth, except during the time she was at the Wagonette Indian Mission School in the Quapaw Agency Indian Territory.

Her father is now alive and is my brother and his name is Robert Ridley Dougherty and he was registered with my father's family on the Register Roll of the Shawnees who came to the Cherokee Nation as Ridley Dougherty. No 259 and her mother was Mary Dougherty on the Register Roll of June 10 1871 No 258 and she was my step mother and this child was born over a year after my father's death or it may be longer. Mary Dougherty was a Shawnee Indian who came to the Cherokee Nation with my father as his wife and she was the daughter of James Keiser Registered Cherokee Indian No 452.

I forgot to say that Daisy Dougherty's mother died in the year 1884, and I took Daisy to my home and raised her until my wife died in 1894, then she went to live with Frank Dougherty's family where she now resides.

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, December 8, 1903.

Frank Daugherty,

Whiteoak, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that before your application for the enrollment of your wife and niece as Shawnee citizens of the Cherokee Nation will be complete, it will be necessary that you introduce further testimony establishing the citizenship of your wife and niece; also establishing their residence in the Cherokee Nation.

This testimony can be presented at the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Tahlequah, and should be introduced at the earliest possible date, as until it is introduced the Commission can not well determine their right to be placed upon the final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

When you appear, please present this letter.

Respectfully,

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Q Now, I am going to ask you a few questions about the children of the Adair family. Is that correct?
A Yes, sir.

Robert L. Adair - 2.

- Q Who married them? A A preacher, I don't remember his name.
Q Have they been living together ever since as man and wife?
A Yes, sir, I know they have of my own knowledge.

The name of Robert L. Adair is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Robert Adair, and on the census roll of 1896 as Robert L. Adair. He avers that he was married to Myrtle Callaway a citizen of the United States, in the year 1892, and makes satisfactory proof of said marriage. The names of his children, Minnie and Peyton, are found upon the census roll of 1896, as well as the name of his wife, Myrtle, and they all being duly identified according to the page and number of the roll as indicated in the testimony, and having made satisfactory proof as to his residence, the said Robert L. Adair and his children, Minnie and Peyton, will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood, and his wife, Myrtle, as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage. The name of his youngest child, Alvin, does not appear upon the census roll of 1896, having been born after the same was compiled, and it will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood upon the filing with this Commission of satisfactory proof of birth of the said Alvin.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Peyton A. Adair as a Cherokee by blood: being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Peyton A. Adair.
Q How old are you? A 21.
Q What is your post office address? A Adair.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A Myself.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Living there now? A Yes, sir.
(On 1880 roll, page 406, No. 100, Peyton Adair, Cooweescoowee district; on 1896 roll, page 101, No. 77, Peyton A. Adair, Cooweescoowee district.

The name of Peyton A. Adair appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Payton Adair and on the census roll of 1896 as Payton A. Adair, and he having made satisfactory proof as to his residence, and being duly identified according to the page and number of the roll, he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I.T., September 20, 1900.

In the matter of the application of John W. Howerton for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee by intermarriage and his wife four children as Cherokees by blood: being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A John W. Howerton.
Q What is your age? A 42.
Q What is your post office address? A Cherokee City, Ark.
Q What district do you live in? A Delaware.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q By blood? A No, sir, by intermarriage.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A Myself and four children.
Q Not your wife? A My wife is dead.
Q What was your wife's name? A Bettie Beck.
Q What was her father's name? A Joe Beck I believe.
Q He living? A No, sir.
Q How old was your wife? A I don't know her age exactly.
Q About how old was she when she died? A She was about 38 when she died I believe.
Q What was her mother's name? A Cynthia I believe.
Q She living? A No, sir, she is dead.
Q What are the names of your children? A The oldest one is named Josephine, 14 years old.
Q What is the name of the next one? A Did, 12 years old.
Q What is the name of the next one? A The next one is named Levy, she is 10 years old.
Q What is the name of the next one? A I believe her name is Sabra Ann, she is 8 years old.
Q What is the name of the next one? A That is all of them.
Q These children alive and living with you? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any certificate of marriage? A Yes, sir.
(Applicant presents a marriage license regularly issued by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation and a certificate of marriage certifying that he was married to one Bettie Beck according to the laws of the Cherokee Nation, on the 12th day of April, 1882.)
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation? A Been living here about 16 years.
Q Living here continuously? A Yes, sir.
Q What degree of blood did your wife have? A 1/4 I believe.
Q Is your wife on the roll of 1880? A Yes, sir, but her father isn't.
Q Why isn't he on the roll? A He was dead.
Q Did she ever go by any other name besides Bettie? A She was married once before but she was divorced.
Q What was her name then? A Riley.
(On 1880 roll, page 458, No. 1451, Betty Riley, Going Snake district.)
Q Was that her name before you married her? A Yes, sir, she married Riley.
(John W. Howerton on 1896 roll, page 574, No. 240, John W. Howerton, Delaware district.)
Q Did your wife die before 1896? A Yes, sir.
(Josephine Howerton on 1896 roll, page 425, No. 1521, Delaware dist.
Did Howerton on 1896 roll, page 455, No. 1522, Delaware district.
Levy Howerton on 1896 roll, page 425, No. 1523, Levi Howerton, Delaware district.
Sabra Ann Howerton on 1896 roll, page 425, No. 1524, Delaware district.)
Q These children all alive and living with you, are they? A Yes, sir.

John W. Howerton - 2.

The name of John W. Howerton appears upon the census roll of 1896 as John M. Howerton. He presents satisfactory proof of marriage to one Bettie Beck, on the 12th of April, 1884. He avers that said Bettie Beck was married tprevious to that to one Riley and her name appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Betty Riley, she now being deceased. The names of his children, Josephine, Did, Levy and Sabra Ann appear upon the census roll of 1896, and they all being duly identified according to the page and number of the roll as indicated in the testimony, and having made satisfactory proof as to their residence, the said John W. Howerton will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by ~~blood~~ intermarriage and his children as enumerated in the testimony as Cherokee citizens by blood.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

REJECTED AS TO WIFE, VAUDA McCULLOUGH

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., September 20, 1900.

In the matter of the application of George E. McCullough, for the enrollment of himself, wife and two children as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackinridge, he testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? A George E. McCullough.
Q How old are you? A I am twenty two.
Q What is your postoffice? A Headmare.
Q What district do you live in? A Delaware.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Me and my two children; my woman is a white woman; I married the 9th day of January, 1898, first, according to Cherokee law, and 12th day of January, 1898, according to United States law.
Q You don't care to apply for her? A No sir.
Q You are a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood do you claim? A I hardly know.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A I have lived here all my life.
Q You are on the roll of 1890? A Yes sir.
Q From what district? A Delaware.
Q 1896 in Delaware too? A Yes sir.
Q What is your father's name? A M. H. McCullough.
Q Cherokee or a white man? A White man.
Q Dead or alive? A Alive.
Q Your mother's name? A Rachel J.
Q Cherokee or a white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or alive? A She is alive.
Q Give me the names of your children? A Milton H. two years old.
Q Next child? A Luther Allen, born 18th of August, 1900.
Q When did you say you were married? A I was married the 9th day of January, 1898, according to Cherokee law and the 12th day of January 1898 according to United States law; I was married twice.
Q You might apply for your wife and get her on the roll; we will have to reject her, but there might be some legal point in it.
A Well.

1896 roll page 496 #1893 George E. McCullough Delaware District.

RANDOLPH BALLARD, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackinridge, testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? Randolph Ballard.
Q How old are you? A Twenty three.
Q What is your post office? A Headmare.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A All my life.
Q Do you know George E. McCullough? A Yes sir.
Q Is he a married man? A Yes sir.
Q What was his wife's name before he married her? A Allen.
Q When did he marry her? A I don't remember just how long, some three or four years I guess.
Q Do you remember at the time they were married? A No sir I do not.

Q You were not present at the marriage? A No sir.

Q Have you known them to be living together as husband and wife for the last two or three years? A Yes sir.

Q He never was married before was he? No sir, not that I know of.

Q You would have been apt to know? A Yes sir.

Q Have you known him for many years? A Yes sir I have known him over fifteen years I guess.

Q His wife never was married before was she? A No sir.

Com'r Brackinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and two children. He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee; he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life and he will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

His two children are not of sufficient age to be upon any roll; when he supplies this Commission with proper certificates of birth as to these two children, they will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

His wife is said not to have been married to him in accordance with Cherokee law until January 18, 1898; the certificate of marriage is not presented at this time; applicant says that he can and will send it; it is too late for her to be enrolled as a Cherokee citizen under the law of 1895; therefore, the application for her enrollment will be rejected.

M. D. Green being first duly sworn, states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Vinita Republican" was on March 9, 1906. Attention was called to Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Secretary-S

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31, (I.T.D. 6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D. 12226-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report was living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

W. E. Leupp.

Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

August 9, 1906, you forwarded affidavits as to the deaths of 66 persons whose names appear on the approved rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and recommended that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Indian Office, and that you be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved rolls in your possession, you having complied with departmental instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons.

Reporting August 23, 1906, the Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department also concurs, and you are authorized to strike the names of said persons from the copies of the approved rolls in your possession, as follows:

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the application for the enrollment of JOSEPH POTTER as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

JOSEPH POTTER, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY COMMISSION: What is your name? A Joseph Potter.
Q How old are you? A I am forty-eight years old.
Q What is your post office address? A Cherokee City, Arkansas.
Q You are a white man, are you? A Yes sir.
Q Have you made application to this Commission for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Hester.
Q She was listed for enrollment under the name of Esther?
A I thought they corrected that. I found her name on the roll Esther, and you will find Lizzie Downing right there by her, on the roll with her mother Elizabeth Downing.
Q Then you gave her name Esther because that was the way she appeared on the roll? A That was her right name I supposed. I suppose it was a full blood enrolled her.
Q What is her right name? A Hester, they used to call her Esther, and I think her uncle gave her in.
Q You gave her name wrong then when you said that her name was Esther. It should be Hester? A It should be Hester, should be right, on that.
Q Do you desire her to be enrolled under her correct name of Hester?
A Yes sir, I think that would be right.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Do you claim your right to enrollment by reason of your marriage to her? A Yes sir.
Q When were you and she married? A In 1891.
Q Were you married at that time according to Cherokee law?
A Yes sir.
Q Have you filed with the Commission your Cherokee marriage license and certificate? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married before you married her? A Yes sir.
Q What was the name of your first wife? A Mollie Lowry, a white woman. Mary Lowry, she is dead.
Q Was she living at the time you married your present wife?
A No sir.
Q How long had she been dead? A About four years.
Q Was that the only time you had been married before you married your present wife? A Yes sir.
Q Was your present wife ever married before she married you?
A Yes sir.
Q What was the name of her first husband? A John Spencer.
Q Is he living? A I don't know.
Q Is he a Cherokee by blood? A No sir, he is a white man.
Q Do you know when your wife was married to him? A No, I don't know just what time they were married.
Q Do you know how long they lived together? A Six or eight months, I think.
Q Then they separated, did they? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether or not your wife was divorced from him?
A Yes sir he got a divorce.

He got the divorce from her? A No, she got the divorce from him for abandonment, before we were married.

Q Was your wife residing in the Cherokee Nation then? A Yes sir.

Q How long ago was that? A That has been about twenty-two years ago, since me and my first woman were married.

Q How long ago was it that your present wife secured a divorce from John Spencer? A It has been over twenty years.

Q She was then a citizen of Arkansas? A Yes sir.

Q Have you filed with the Commission a copy of that decree of divorce? A No sir.

Q Did you have a copy of it, or did your present wife have a copy of it? A I suppose she did. My wife died in 1890, and I went to Idaho, and she died out there, never knew anything of getting the divorce. She got it at Bentonville. Judge gave her the divorce. I knew him, he lived in eight miles of Bentonville.

Q I am asking you about your present wife being divorced from her former husband, John Spencer? A No, my present wife is a Cherokee by blood. My first wife was a white woman, she is dead.

Q You have stated that your present wife was divorced from John Spencer in the State of Arkansas, is that correct? A You don't understand me. You asked me if my first wife had been married to John Spencer before we were married? She was a white woman. But this last woman she had never been married at all.

Q Then you misunderstood me, did you, when I asked you if your present wife had ever been married before she married you?

A I thought you meant my first wife.

Q It was your first wife that was married to John Spencer before she married you? A Yes sir, and they were both white people.

Q You state now that your present wife was never married before she married you? A No sir, she was never married.

Q Have you and she lived together continuously since your marriage? A Yes sir.

Q You are her first husband and she is your second wife? A Yes sir.

Q Were you and she living together on the 1st day of September, 1902?

A Yes sir.

Q Have you ever been separated since your marriage? A No sir.

Q How long have you resided in the Cherokee Nation? A I have been here about twenty years, first and last, in the Cherokee Nation.

Q How long have you resided here continuously? A For the last fifteen years.

Q You have resided here continuously for the last fifteen years?

A Yes sir, about fifteen years.

Q How long has your present wife resided in the Cherokee Nation?

A She was born and raised here.

Q Resided here continuously all her life? A Yes sir.

Q How many children have you that you made application for?

A I have six.

Q Have you had one child born since you were listed for enrollment?

A Yes sir.

Q Are all six of those children living at this time? A Yes sir.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Joseph Potter as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, Cherokee straight card field No. 3113.

Wm. Hutchinson, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of the stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., SEPTEMBER 20, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Richard L. Martin for enrollment of himself and wife as citizens of the Cherokee nation, said Martin being duly sworn, by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name, please? A Richard L. Martin.
Q How old are you? A 53.
Q Your postoffice? A Pensacola, I.T.
Q In what district do you live? A Delaware.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the rolls? A Myself and wife.
Q Apply as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes.
Q What proportion of blood? A $1/16$.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee? A Yes.
Q What proportion of blood does she claim? A $1/8$.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee nation? A All my life.
Q What district were you enrolled in in '80? A Delaware.
Q What district in '96? A Delaware.
Q What is your father's name? A Joseph L.
Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
Q Cherokee? A Yes.
Q When did he die? A '92.
Q What is your mother's given name? A Sarah.
Q How long since she died? A '64.
Q Give me your wife's name? A Flora B.
Q What was her maiden name? A Rogers.
Q How old is she? A Born in '68.
Q When were you married to her? A '95.
Q What was your wife's name when you married her? A Cumming, a widow.
Q Is she enrolled in '80 as a Cumming? A No sir, she is not on the '80 roll.
Q How did she get to be a Cherokee citizen? A She was admitted.

Applicant presents duly authenticated certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship stating that on the 3rd day of July, 1888, certain persons were admitted to citizenship, and among them appears the name of Flora B. Cumming. Is that the name of your wife? A Yes. Aged at that time of her enrollment admission, 19 years. This is recognized as official evidence of the facts stated and it is returned to the applicant.

Q Your wife has lived in the Cherokee nation ever since her admission in '88? A Yes.

Q Have you certificate of your marriage to her? A I have one at home; did not think I would need it.

Q So that the Flora B. Cumming that was admitted to citizenship in '88 is the same person as the Flora B. Martin to-day? A Yes.

Applicant on '80 roll, page 283, number 1429;

On '96 roll, page 288, number 2196.

Applicant's wife on '85 roll, page 808, number 2197.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and wife.

He is identified on the rolls of '80 and '96. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all of his life and will be listed for enrollment now as a Cherokee citizen by blood. His wife is shown to be admitted to Cherokee citizenship by the Commission in '88. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation since '88, and is identified with her husband on the roll of '96. Her change of name is established in a satisfactory manner as shown in the testimony, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the Commission's letter of February 3, M. G. R. 4633, directing that a copy of testimony taken in the applications for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Arizona Elizabeth Daniel, et al., Cherokee 3083, Jessie J. Daniel, Cherokee 3115, and Rosanna Freedman, et al., Cherokee 91, be forwarded to the Commission for consideration in connection with the applications made by these persons for enrollment as Mississippi Choctaws. The Commission also desires to know whether these applicants have made formal election to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

A copy of all of the testimony in each of these cases is enclosed herewith. It does not appear therefrom that any of the applicants embraced therein have made formal election to be enrolled as Cherokees.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Cherokee

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 2, 1904

Chief Clerk,

Cherokee Land Office,

Dear Sir:

In connection with the application for the enrollment of Jessie H. Daniel whose name is included in a schedule of citizens of the Cherokee Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior, opposite No. 7712, and whose application for the selection of an allotment of land in the Cherokee Nation was not made regular because of the information received that she was included in an application for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw, you are advised that no regular application was made for the identification of this person as a Mississippi Choctaw.

Application was made, however, for the identification of her mother, and the decision of the Five Civilized Tribes adverse to, among others, Jessie J. Daniel's mother, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior January 5, 1906.

The application of Jessie J. Daniel for the selection of an allotment of land in the Cherokee Nation, should therefore be made regular.

Respectfully,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 17, 1906.

Chief Clerk,

Cherokee Enrollment Division.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 13th instant, requesting to be advised the status of the Mississippi Choctaw application of Jessie J. Daniel.

In reply you are informed that on February 3, 1902, Arizona Elizabeth Daniels appeared before the office of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the identification of herself and one minor child, Stafford Livonia Daniels, as Mississippi Choctaws. At the time of making such application Mrs. Daniels stated that she had a child, Jessie J. Daniels, who was twenty-three years of age. The rules of the Commission required that all persons over twenty-one years of age or married must appear in person and submit their application. It does not appear from the records of this office that any application was ever made by Jessie J. Daniels for identification as a Mississippi Choctaw.

The application of Arizona Elizabeth Daniels, et al. was consolidated with and made a part of the Mississippi Choctaw case of Scott E. Dumas, et al., in which case a decision was rendered adverse to all the applicants by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes May 18, 1906. This decision was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior January 8, 1906.

Respectfully,

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Susan Brown, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

It appears from the record in this case that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before this Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of Susan Brown, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, her name being listed on Card, Cherokee D-2472.

The records of the Commission also show that on September 20, 1900, application was made for the enrollment of the said Susan Brown, under the name of Susan Gray, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, her name appearing upon Card, Cherokee 3118.

It is therefore ordered that the record in the case of Susan Brown, Cherokee D-2472, be transferred to Cherokee 3118, and that her name as it now appears upon Cherokee D-2472, be canceled.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dear Sir:-

On October 6, 1902, your wife, Susan Gray, appeared before this Commission and testified as to your right to enrollment, on September 1, 1902, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

You are now advised that the testimony given by your wife is not sufficient in your case, and before your application for enrollment will be complete, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commission and give further testimony. Such testimony can be given before the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, any time after January 5, 1903.

When you appear for the purpose of giving this testimony, you will be required to furnish the Commission with the original or a certified copy of your marriage license and certificate.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Application has been made to this Commission for the enrollment, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, of one, Susan Brown, who, if living, is about 35 years of age. Her name appears upon the 1880 Cherokee Orphan Roll, Delaware District, and opposite her name is a note stating that she is living with Mrs. Ann Sweetwater. It appears that Anna Sweetwater was your wife.

If you know whether Susan Brown is living please inform the Commission, as early as possible, of her present whereabouts, giving her post office address and such other information as you may have, in order that proper steps may be taken to ascertain her right to enrollment.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., SEPTEMBER 20, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Henry Beck for enrollment of his crippled brother, said Beck being sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Henry Beck.
Q Your age? A 43.
Q Your postoffice? A Cherokee City.
Q What district do you live in? A Delaware.
Q Who do you want to have enrolled now? A A crippled brother.
Q He is unable to apply for himself? A I was appointed as his guardian.
Q He is under 21? A No sir.
Q He is helpless? A Yes sir.
Q What is his name? A Robert.
Q What is his age? A About 45.
Q You are his guardian? A Yes.
Q He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life? A Yes.
On '80 roll, page 226 number 273, Robert Beck.
On '96 roll, page 437, number 216.

Robert Beck is identified on the rolls of '80 and '96 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee nation all his life. His brother is permitted to make application for him because of his inability to apply for himself, his brother holding the position of guardian for him. He will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of NARCISSA M. ADAIR as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Vinita, Indian Territory, September 20, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Narcissa M. Adair as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 8, 1902, December 19, 1902, and January 18, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Narcissa M. Adair, a white woman, was married under the laws of the State of Arkansas, October 11, 1867, to one Edward A. Adair, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation and who is identified upon the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Going Snake District, page 406, number 93, as a native Cherokee. That the said Edward A. Adair and Narcissa M. Adair resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation until the time of his death which occurred December 3, 1901. That since the death of said Edward A. Adair the said Narcissa M. Adair has remained unmarried and has continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation. Said applicant is identified upon the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128 the said applicant, Narcissa M. Adair, is entitled, under the provision of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

Adair, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:-

There has heretofore been mailed you a notice requiring you to appear before the Commission for the purpose of giving additional testimony relative to your rights to enrollment, on September 1, 1902, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Such testimony has not yet been presented and you are now advised that, until same is presented, your application for enrollment will not be complete.

This testimony can be introduced before the Commission at its offices at Muskogee, Indian Territory, any time prior to December 24, 1902, or before the Cherokee Land Office at Vinita, Indian Territory, after January 2, 1903.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

The Department's instructions on June 3, 1905 (I.T.B. 2240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.B. 18228-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "Fryer Creek Clipper", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, ~~and both~~ in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in the "Pryor Creek Clipper" was on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Binky refers to Departmental letters of May 21, (I.T.B.6186-1906), June 1, (I.T.B.6640-1906), October 4, (I.T.B.12228-1906), and January 12, (I.T.B.118-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 284 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Binky reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

Robert L. Adair - 2.

- W Who married them? A A preacher, I don't remember his name.
Q Have they been living together ever since as man and wife?
A Yes, sir, I know they have of my own knowledge.

The name of Robert L. Adair is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Robert Adair, and on the census roll of 1896 as Robert L. Adair. He avers that he was married to Myrtle Callaway a citizen of the United States, in the year 1892, and makes satisfactory proof of said marriage. The names of his children, Minnie and Peyton, are found upon the census roll of 1896, as well as the name of his wife, Myrtle, and they all being duly identified according to the page and number of the roll as indicated in the testimony, and having made satisfactory proof as to his residence, the said Robert L. Adair and his children, Minnie and Peyton, will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood, and his wife, Myrtle, as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage. The name of his youngest child, Alvin, does not appear upon the census roll of 1896, having been born after the same was compiled, and it will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood upon the filing with this Commission of satisfactory proof of birth of the said Alvin.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Mr. George W. Poplin,

Adair, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

When application was made for the enrollment of your wife as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, the Commission was advised that her name was Catharine Poplin. In the affidavit as to the birth of your daughter Nellie Poplin, the name of your wife appears as Catherine O. Poplin.

You are requested to advise the Commission immediately whether your wife desires to be listed under the name of Catharine Poplin, or Catherine O. Poplin.

Yours truly, me

Commissioner in Charge.

at time of enrollment at Albany it must have been a mistake in writing it down

So I will say that I would like for you to enroll her as Catharine Olive

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

(449)

You have to have proof of birth as to William too.

- Q These children living with you? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Since 1891.
Q

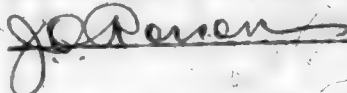

Com'r Needles:--The name of John B. Harrold appears upon the the census roll of 1896 as John Harrold. He avers that he was married to one Rebecca Countryman, a citizen by blood, November 6th, 1895, and makes satisfactory proof of the same. The name of his wife, Rebecca, is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and also found upon the census roll of 1896 as Rebecca Harrold, her present name. He avers that he has two children of this marriage, William and Maggie, whose names do not appear on the roll of 1896, having been born since said roll was compiled. Represents satisfactory proof of birth as to his youngest child, Maggie, but does not as to his oldest child, William. Satisfactory proof having been made as to their residence, and they all being fully identified on the rolls, the said John B. Harrold will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by inter-marriage.

John B. Harold---2.

His wife, Rebecca, and children, William and Maggie, will be duly listed for enrollment as citizens by hood. In order to complete the enrollment of his child, William, he will be required to file satisfactory proof of his birth.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

 Applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and nine children. He is identified on the rolls of '80 and '96. He has lived in the Cherokee nation all his life and will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood. His present wife was married to him in '94, and is the mother of the last three of his children. She is identified with him on the roll of '96. She has lived with him ever since she married him, and will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. His children are by three wives. The first child is born of a wife who is identified with him on the roll of '80 and who died within that year. This child is identified on the roll of '96. The next five children are born of a wife to whom he was married 14 years ago. She lived with him as his wife until she died seven years thereafter. The remaining three children are the children of the present wife. The first six of all these children are identified on the roll of '96. They are living at this time, and will be, listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood. The three remaining children are too young to be upon any roll. When the Commission is supplied with proper certificates of their births these three children will also be listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Subject:
Correction on Cherokee roll as to sex of certain citizens.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sirs:

Your attention is respectfully invited to the enrollment upon the approved roll of citizens by blood and freedom of the Cherokee Nation of the citizens hereafter named whose sex is indicated incorrectly upon the roll.

In accordance with departmental approval of August 17, 1908, of Indian Office letter of August 13, 1908 (Lands 24212-17221), it is respectfully recommended that the sex as the same appears upon the approved roll of Cherokee citizens, of the following citizens be corrected as indicated:

7707	Lucky, Sabrina L.	from male to female,
9487	Hall, Benrice	from male to female,
12316	Woods, Oliver	from female to male,
12322	Feather, Nellie	from male to female,
20725	Gallins, Lula M.	from male to female,
20734	Gallins, George H.	from female to male,
2-2222	Woods, Annie	from male to female,

The records of this office show that the sex of these persons appears incorrectly upon the roll.

It is also recommended that the Office of Indian Affairs and this office be authorized to make corrections upon the copies of Cherokee roll in their possession as to the sex of said citizens.

Respectfully,

JCH(LS)

Acting Commissioner.

Correction on Cherokee roll as to sex of certain citizens.

W.F.Jr.
T.M.C.

January 30 1909.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted a letter of the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of January 20, 1909, requesting that authority be granted to correct the designation of the sex of the persons hereinafter named as it appears opposite their names upon the approved roll of Cherokee citizens.

An examination of the records discloses that the sex of the persons named is incorrectly given on the roll.

This Office concurs in the recommendation of the Acting Commissioner that corrections be made on the copies of the roll in possession of the Secretary, the Indian Office, and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, as follows:

7747 Lucky, Sabrina E.,	from male to female.
9287 Hall, Beatrice	from male to female.
12216 Haase, Oliver	from female to male.
16050 Feather, Nellie	from male to female.
22753 Collins, Lula E.,	from male to female.
22754 Collins, George D.	from female to male.
P-2422 Woods, Annie	from male to female.

Very respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., SEPTEMBER 20, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Nettie A. Bazzell for enrollment of herself, husband and one child as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said Bazzell being sworn by Commissioner Gracknridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Nettie A. Bazzell.
Q How old are you? A 24.
Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita.
Q In what district do you live? A Delaware.
Q Who do you want to have put on the roll? A Myself, husband and one child.
Q Apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes.
Q Is your husband a Cherokee? A No sir, white man.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee nation? A All my life.
Q How long have you lived in Delaware district? A All my life.
Q What district did you live in in '80? A Near Fairland.
Q What is your father's name? A George W. Gibney, Cherokee or white man? A White man.
Q Dead or alive? A Alive.
Q Your mother's name? A Josephine.
Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long since she died? A I guess about 18 years to the best of my knowledge.
Q What was your name before you were a Bazzell? A Gibney.
Q When did you marry? A 6th of February, 1896.
Q What is your husband's name? A Charles Bazzell.
Q How old is he? A 25.
Q And married you in '96? A Yes.
Q Have you certificate of marriage? A Yes.
Q The applicant presents Cherokee marriage license issued by the Clerk of Delaware district authorizing her marriage with her husband as stated by her on February 4, 1896, and the certificate shows that the marriage was consummated by the Judge of the Northern judicial district of the Cherokee nation on the same date as the license. This is filed herewith.
Q Give me the name of your child, please? A Clarence, 3 years old.
Applicant on '80 roll, page 261, number 1128, as Nettie Gibney.

Applicant on '96 roll, page 443, number 403;
Applicant's husband on roll of '96, page 565, number 20 as

- Charley.
Q Where is your husband now? A I don't know.
Q He is not living with you? A Yes.
Q Living with you and not living with you? A Yes.
Q Is he on what you call a "scout"? A I don't know, I guess that is what you would call it.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, husband and one child. She is identified on the rolls of '80 and '96 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and she is a Cherokee citizen by blood. Her name is too young to be upon any of the rolls. The mother is known to have been married in '80 by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. When she supplies the Commission with a proper certificate of the birth of this child, it also will be known for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

Her husband is at present away from home and it is evident he is evading the officers of the law. If he had any rights the application for him would not be permitted since he is evading the law, but as he is known to have been married in '96, too late under Cherokee law to acquire Cherokee rights, his application is rejected.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly transcribed the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes.
Subscribed & sworn to before me this 20th day of September, 1900.

Q How long have you been living here continuously for the last time? A About seven years.
Q Where were you temporary absent? A I was in the State of Iowa.
Q What was your occupation? A My occupation up to 1879 was practicing law. I believe that in 1877, if my memory serves me right, I closed up my law office and come down here and went into the Male Seminary to teach. In 1880 I went into the Seminary again. I have been practicing law in the State of Iowa since.
Q Did you ever hold any public office in the State of Iowa? A Yes, sir, I was Justice of the Peace there.
Q What year? A I could not tell you? A
Q Before or since 1880? A It is impossible for me to tell you that.
Q Did you hold any other office up there? A Yes, I was Mayor of the city for a short time.
Q Do you know when that was? A I could not tell you that.
Q How long were you Mayor? A One year.
Q Before or since 1880? A I could not tell.
Q How long were you ever continuously absent from the Cherokee Nation at any one time? A The longest time was from 1857 to 1864.
Q Since 1880? A As much as two years, or more than that, I could not tell, as much as two years any way.
Q You have been here continuously you say for the past seven? A Yes, sir, with the exception of a short time I went to Washington City and staid as an Attorney for the Nation.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 11, 1907.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Helen R. Duncan as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Applicant appears in person.

APPEARANCES:

Cherokee Nation represented by
W. W. Hastings, Attorney.

Helen R. Duncan being first duly sworn by B. P. Rogers, Notary Public, testified as follows:

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER.

Q What is your name? A Helen R. Duncan.
Q What is your age? A 66.
Q What is your post office address?
A Vinita.
Q You claim the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation?
A I do.
Q You have no Cherokee blood? A No sir.
Q Your only claim to the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation is by virtue of your marriage to a Cherokee by blood?
A A special act of council adopting me in 1874.
Q What is the name of the citizen through whom you claim that right?
A D. W. O. Duncan.
Q Is he living? A He is.
Q When did you marry him? A December 21, 1863.
Q Was he your first husband? A He was.
Q You were his first wife? A I was.
Q He was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time you married him?
A He was. He was out during the war getting his education.
Q But soon after the war, he returned to the Cherokee Nation?
A He came to the Nation in 1874 but he never relinquished his rights because he never took his effects from here.
Q On coming to the Nation, it was not necessary for him to go before the authorities and be re-admitted?
A No, we never asked for re-admission. We considered it a compliment from William Penn Adair in re-admitting him. He went as a young man to be educated and during the war, couldn't return here.
Q Then as I understand you, your husband on returning to the Cherokee Nation did not make application but was re-admitted without having made application, by the Cherokee authorities.
A Yes sir; they admitted him. He never asked for re-admission because he never had lost his citizenship here.
Q Was that compliment extended to your husband prior to your marriage?
A No, because it was understood he was out getting his education and during the war, he was out over two years. I was married in Wisconsin, and he was educated in New England.
Q You were married in the State of Wisconsin and accompanied your husband to the Cherokee Nation after the war?

A Yes sir; he came in 1874.

Q And was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes sir; and I was admitted too. He was always enrolled in the North when he was at school as from the Indian Territory.

The applicant presents an original marriage certificate showing that she was married to her husband DeWitt C. Duncan in the State of Wisconsin, December 21, 1863. This instrument is filed with and made a part of the record in this case.

The applicant also presents a certified copy of an Act to re-admit D. W. C. Duncan to Cherokee citizenship, and for the admission of his family to same benefits.

"Be it enacted by the National Council that D. W. C. Duncan be and he is hereby re-admitted to all the rights and benefits of Cherokee citizenship; and that his wife who is a citizen of the United States, be and she is hereby admitted to Cherokee citizenship, November 19, 1874. Approved: Will P. Ross."

Q Have you and your husband since November 19, 1874, continuously resided together as husband and wife?

A Except when my health would not permit me to stay. I have been back to Iowa several times.

Q Your absence was just of a temporary nature?

A Yes sir.

Q Your home has been in the Cherokee Nation continuously since that time?

A Yes sir.

The applicant, Helen R. Duncan, is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Tahlequah District, No. 568. Her husband, DeWitt C. Duncan is identified on said roll at No. 567 and his name appears on the approved partial roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation opposite No. 7752.

The undersigned being first duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she recorded the testimony taken in this case and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of HELEN R. DUNCAN as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on September 20th, 1900 application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Helen R. Duncan as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 11th, 1902 and January 11th, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Helen R. Duncan, a white woman, married in the State of Wisconsin on December 21st, 1863, one DeWitt C. Duncan, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Tahlequah District No. 867, as a native Cherokee and whose name is included on the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation opposite No. 7782; that in the year 1874 the said DeWitt C. Duncan was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities thereof; that since said admission the said DeWitt C. Duncan and Helen R. Duncan have resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation up to and including September 1st, 1902. Said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5th, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Helen R. Duncan, is entitled, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28th, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

Tamm Bixby.
COMMISSIONER.

Dear Madam:

In reply to your letter of November 21, in reference to your right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation under the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case involving the right of intermarried white persons to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, you are advised that decisions will be rendered in the cases of intermarried white persons, by this office, at the earliest practicable date.

Respectfully,

Mrs. Helen R. Duncan,
Vinita, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Replying to your letter of January 4, 1907, you are advised that as the record in the matter of the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation is not complete, it will be necessary that you appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage to your Cherokee husband, and as to whether or not he was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time of your marriage to him.

You are therefore notified to appear at the very earliest possible date in order that your testimony may be taken in your case. You should, if possible, produce your original marriage license or certificate of marriage. This matter is extremely important and should be attended to at once.

You are further advised that until your name shall have been included in a schedule of citizens of the Cherokee Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, no allotment of land can be made to you.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Edwin E. Brown,

Vinita, Indian Territory.

Dear Edwin:

There is inclosed herewith a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 30, 1907, granting the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

You will be advised when your name is placed on a schedule of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Washago, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In compliance with your verbal request there are handed you herewith your certificate of marriage and a certified copy of an act admitting yourself and family to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation. Copies thereof have been retained in the files of this office.

These documents were left with the Commissioner in connection with the application for the enrollment of your wife, Helen R. Suman, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully,

DeWitt C. Duncan,

Vinita, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

This office is in receipt, by reference of the Secretary of the Interior, of your letter of March 12, in reference to the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, of your wife, Helen R. Duncan.

In reply you are referred to this office's letter of March 8, in which you were advised that the letter of March 2, from this office, addressed to your wife, Helen R. Duncan, in so far as it advised her that her application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation had been rejected, was in error.

You are again advised that the application for the enrollment of Helen R. Duncan as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was granted on January 30, 1907, and that her name now appears opposite Number 241 on a partial roll of such citizens approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Vinita, I. T., September 20, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Melton M. Caulk for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation. Said Caulk being sworn by Commissioner, T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Melton M. Caulk.
Q What is your age? A 48.
Q Your Postoffice address? A Chelsea.
Q What district? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q By blood or intermarriage? A By blood.
Q What degree of blood do you claim? A One eighth.
Q For whom do you apply? A Myself, wife and children.
Q Do you apply for yourself? A Yes sir.
Q Is your name on the authenticated roll of 1880? A No sir.
Q By what right do you claim citizenship? A By admission by the Dawes Commission.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Malinda J. Caulk.
Q What is the name of the children that you apply for?
A Arthur F.
Q How old is he? A 20.
Q What is the name of the next one? A Rhoda; 17 years old.
Q The name of the next one? A Maud.
Q How old is Maud? A Nine years old.

Upon examination of the records of the Dawes Commission, there is found in Case #3316 Court Case #287, that Melton Caulk, Walter F. and Maud Caulk, were admitted to citizenship by decision of the United States Court; petition having been filed September 12, 1896.

- Q The name of your wife does not appear in the certificate of admission you have, certifying that you were admitted to citizenship?
A No sir.
Q When were you married? A 1870.
Q What was your wife's name? A McMillan. was her maiden name.
Q What is her first name? A Malinda J.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q Have you proof of marriage? A Yes sir.
Q Certificate of marriage? A No sir, I was married in Missouri and could not get any license at that time.
Q V. V. Hastings, Representative of the Cherokee nation:

Q Where were you living at the time you were married?
A In Missouri.
Q How long did you live there? A Since 1868.
Q In McDonald County, Missouri? A Yes sir.
Q And lived up to the time you were married in McDonald County, Missouri? A Yes sir, except two years when I was a boy.
Q Were you born in 1846 and married in 1870?
A I was born in 1846.
Q But from 1868 until 1870 you lived in McDonald County, Missouri? A Yes sir.
Q You were not recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee nation at the time you were married? A No sir.
Q You never were recognized until 1896? A No sir.

Com'r Needles:

- Q Where do you live now? A Three miles above Chelsea.
Q How long have you lived there? A 12 years.
Q Have children living here with you? A Yes sir.
Q Does your name appear upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A I was here when the census rolls were taken in 1896.

Gen'r. Needles:

The name of Melton M. Caulk and his wife, Malinda J., and his children for whom he applies do not appear upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation, but upon examination of the records of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, it is found that the said Melton M. Caulk and his children, Arthur F., Rhoda and Maud were admitted as citizens upon an application that was filed before them on September 6th, 1896; Dawes Commission Case #6318, and Court Case #269. An appeal was taken to the United States Court, Northern District by the Cherokee nation, and the judgment of the Dawes Commission was sustained, thereby becoming final; Consequently, the said Melton F. Caulk and his children, Arthur F., Rhoda and Maud will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood.

He applies for the enrollment of his wife, Malinda J., and he presents no certificate of admission to citizenship. Her name does not appear in the judgment admitting himself and his children. He swears that he was married to her in the State of Missouri, in the year 1870, but does not present any certificate of marriage. Final judgment as to the enrollment of the said Malinda J., his wife, will be suspended and her name will be placed upon a doubtful card.

And he will be required to present satisfactory certificate of marriage in order to complete the enrollment.

James C. Childers, being sworn, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A James C. Childers.

Q What is your age? A 32.

Q What is your Postoffice address? A Albert.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.

Q Do you know Melton M. Caulk? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Malinda Caulk? A Yes sir.

Q What relation do they bear to one another? A Man and wife.

Q How do you know they are man and wife? A I heard the parson pronounce them so.

Q You were at the marriage? A yes sir.

Q In what State? A State of Missouri.

Q What year was that in? A 1870.

Q They have lived together as man and wife since that time?

A yes sir.

Q Have you known them continuously? A yes sir.

J. O. Rosson, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

First :- With due respect to the officer assigned to this hearing (or the Commissioner, if there is one) the persons whose claim to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation is now called in question objects to any hearing, or the taking of any testimony, in the case without such hearing, or taking of testimony, be by a majority of the Commission, because the law nowhere authorizes a hearing, or the taking of testimony, by any other person or body than the Commission and a majority of the Commission must be present at all hearings, or the taking of testimony, in cases of Citizenship.

Second :- They object to any hearing, or the taking of any testimony, in this case, because the action of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on the application of these persons made under the act of June 10, 1896, was final and conclusive, is binding now and can not be questioned or enquired into by the Commission.

Third :- They object to any hearing, or the taking of any testimony, in this case, because the Commission under the authority conferred upon it by law, has heard in the case and promulgated its decision, and is without any jurisdiction to further act in any manner in the case except to transmit its decision to the Secretary of the Interior.

Chero. 3140.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 10, 1908.

Wilton M. Gaulk,

Chalsee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

You are hereby advised that on Thursday the 26th day of June, 1908, at the offices of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, testimony will be introduced tending to disprove your right to enrollment as a member of the Cherokee Tribe of Indians in Indian Territory.

If you desire you may on said day appear before the Commission either in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be offered you to introduce any testimony you may deem necessary relative to your citizenship.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
VINITA, I. T., SEPTEMBER 20th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF William R. Baker, wife and children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A William R. Baker.
Q What is your age? A I am thirty five years old.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Oolagah.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself, wife and four children.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A No sir.
Q White man? A Yes sir.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q What proportion do you claim for her? A One sixteenth I think.
Q Have you a marriage licence and certificate? A Yes sir.

The applicant presents a licence, issued by the Clerk of Delaware District, dated January 17th, 1890, authorizing his marriage to Miss Sallie E. Trout, and the certificate shows that they were married on the same date by the Clerk of the District. These papers are filed herewith.

- Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation since your marriage in 1890? A Yes sir.

- Q And you and your wife, to whom you were married at that time, have lived together ever since? A Yes sir.

- Q How old is your wife? A Twenty years old. (90)

- Q Give me the names of your children, please? A Millie L. Baker.

- Q How old is that child? A Ten.

- Q The next child, please? A Mabel.

- Q How old is she? A Seven.

- Q The next child? A Eva Pearl.

- Q How old is that child? A Four years old.

- Q The next child? A Effie M.

- Q How old is she? A One year old.

- Q Are these children all living? A Yes sir.

- Q Has your wife lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life? A Yes sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children. His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896, as a Native Cherokee; her change of name is established by the marriage licence and certificate filed herewith. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The applicant is identified with his wife on the roll of 1896; is shown to have been married to her in accordance with Cherokee law in 1890. They have lived together in the Cherokee Nation ever since, and he will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. Of their four children, the first three are identified with their parents on the roll of 1896; they are living now, and will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokees by blood, and when the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of birth of the youngest child, that child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage; and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Muskegee, Indian Territory, September 29th, 1902.

In the matter of the application of George W. Clark for the enrollment of himself; his wife, Lydia A. Clark; his children, George W. Jr., Ross and Eva M. Clark, and ward, Lyman G. Flanders, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Supplemental to #3142.

Appearances:

Applicant appears in person.
J. C. Starr for the Cherokee Nation.

GEORGE W. CLARK, being duly sworn, testified as follows:--

Examination by the Commission.

- Q. What is your name? A. My name is George W. Clark.
Q. Are you one of the applicants in this case? A. I don't know. I was enrolled at Vinita. I didn't think there was anything in my case.
Q. Are you the same George W. Clark that made application to the Commission on September 20th, 1900, at Vinita, for the enrollment of yourself, wife Lydia A. and your children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir; I am the same man.
Q. How old are you at this time? A. 60 my coming birthday.
Q. How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Just that long.
Q. 60 years? A. Yes, sir.
Q. All the time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long has your wife lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. All her life.
Q. How long has your children George W. Jr., Ross and Eva M. lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Born and raised in the town of Vinita.
Q. Lived there all their lives? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And did you make application for the enrollment of Lyman G. Flanders? A. Yes, sir; I made application for the enrollment of Lyman G. Flanders. He is a minor heir living in Kansas City. Child of my wife's sister. He is living there with his grandmother.
Q. Are you his guardian? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is his mother living? A. No, sir.
Q. Was she a Cherokee? A. Yes, sir; my wife's sister.
Q. Is his father living? A. No, sir; dead.
Q. Where was his mother living when she died? A. She was living in Cowardown, near Vinita. His father, after her death, went to Kansas City and was killed by a freight train at Kansas City.
Q. He was living at Kansas City when he died? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long has he been dead? A. I don't know. Been dead several years. This boy was just an infant when his mother died and his grand parents they wanted him to send him to school. I was the only one to look after him. That is the reason I had him enrolled.

In the matter of the application of GEORGE W. CLARK, for the enrollment of himself, his wife LYDIA A. CLARK, and his children, GEORGE W. JR., ROSS and EVA M. CLARK, and his ward LYMAN G. FLANDERS, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

GEORGE W. CLARK, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

- Q State your name ? A George W. Clark.
Q How old are you ? A Sixty years old.
Q What is your post office ? A Vinita.
Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir.
Q You have a ward by the name of Lyman G. Flanders ?
A Yes sir, he is a nephew of mine--of my wife.
Q You are not his guardian ? A No, I am not his guardian.
Q Who is his guardian ? A He hasn't got any, he is living with his grand-parents at Kansas City going to school.
Q What was his father's name ? A Flanders.
Q Charlie ? A Yes sir.
Q What was his mother's name ? A Susie Scraper.
Q She was a Cherokee ? A Yes sir.
Q They were both Cherokees ? A Yes sir.
Q When did they die ? A I disremember when they died. His mother died out here on Paw Paw of consumption.
Q When did the father die ? A He got killed in Kansas City a year or two afterwards.
Q His mother Susie had always lived in the Cherokee Nation ?
A Yes sir, she lived here all her life-time.
Q Did the father take the boy to Kansas City with him ?
A No sir, I think he went there before her death, and after her death, the grand-parents on the Cherokee side was old man Scraper and they was hardly able to take care of him, and the boy's grand-parents up there wanted to take him up there and educate him.
Q His father's people ? A Yes sir.
Q Has he been living there ever since that time ? A Yes sir.
Q In Kansas City ? A Yes sir.
Q That is for the past ten years ? A Yes sir, for the past seven or eight years.
Q Did his father live up there after the death of his wife Susie, his father went to Kansas City ? A He went there before the death of his wife.
Q And lived there up to the time he was killed ?
A Yes sir, but this child didn't go there until after her death; she kept the child.
Q You had the boy enrolled here ? A Yes sir, I had the boy enrolled here, and stated all the facts in the case before Mr. Bradley.
Q Do you know if the boy's father ever married again ?
A No sir, he never married.
Q What was he doing there ? A Well his father and mother lived there, and like a great many other men he got hold of more than he wanted, and he left his wife with her parents and went off up there.
Q How long did they get together ?
A I disremember, they lived long enough together to have this child there, a year or two.
Q You have never had this child in your custody ? A No sir.

Q How did you come to enroll the boy ?

A Just because he was a nephew of my wife's, and I wanted him to have a part of the estate; he was entitled to it.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

Chero. 3143.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 10, 1903.

Pleasant Gaulk,

Miles, Indian Territory.

Sir:

You are hereby advised that on Thursday the 26th day of June, 1903, at the offices of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, testimony will be introduced tending to disprove your right to enrollment as a member of the Cherokee Tribe of Indians in Indian Territory.

If you desire you may on said day appear before the Commission either in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be offered you to introduce any testimony you may deem necessary relative to your citizenship.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Vinita, I.T. September 20th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF JOHN WESLEY PURCELL FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HIMSELF HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

The said John Wesley Purcell, being sworn and examined by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A John Wesley Purcell.
Q What is your age? A Thirty-five.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Big Cabin, Indian Territory.
Q What district do you live in? A Delaware.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q By blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What degree of blood do you claim? A I am a Shawnee.
Q How much Shawnee blood have you got? A To the best of my knowledge one-sixteenth.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A For myself, wife and two children.
Q What is the name of your father? A My father was Robert Wesley Purcell.
Q Is he living? A No, sir; he is dead.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Harriett Jones.
Q Is she living? A (No response)
Q What is the maiden name of your wife? A Mary E. Mollum.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the color of her blood? A No, sir; she is white.
Q When did you marry her? A In 1880.
Q Have you got a certificate of marriage? A Yes, sir.
THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate, certifying that he was married to one Mary Mollum, a citizen of the United States on the 27th day of October, the same being recorded May 27th, 1900.
Q What is her age? A She is twenty-eight to the best of my knowledge.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q What are the names of your children? A William Raymond.

MR HASTINGS: (Representative of the Cherokee Nation)

The Cherokee Nation desires to put into this case the testimony of David Daugherty taken in the case of Harriett Ross, mother of this applicant, which testimony is to the effect that the applicant's mother was married to his cousin, a Shawnee by blood, and that she subsequently married the applicant's father, who was a white man; and that she, the applicant's mother, was also a white woman. The point is not against him at all. I don't know whether there is anything to it or not; but we expect to hold that an adopted white person cannot marry another white person and adopt her. There cannot be any objection made to him because he is on the roll of 1880.

THE COMMISSIONER: The name of John Wesley Purcell appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as well as the Census Roll of 1896. Being duly identified thereby and having made satisfactory proof as to his residence, he will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The name of his wife, Mary E. appears upon the Census Roll of 1896. He avers that he was married to her on the 28th day of October 1889, and presents a certificate of marriage to that effect. The name of his child, William R., is also found upon the Census Roll of 1896. He avers that he has one child named Carl, two years old, whose name does not appear upon the roll of 1880 having been born after the same was compiled. He presents satisfactory proof as to his birth. By reason of the protest of the Representative of the Cherokee Nation, final judgment as to the enrollment of the said Mary E. Purcell and her two children William R. and Carl E., is suspended, and their names will be placed upon a doubtful card.

The undersigned being sworn, states that as Stenographer to the Commission to the five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in the above application for enrollment, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd day of October A. D. 1900.

Q And have lived together without interruption since your marriage? A Yes.

Applicant's wife on '80 roll, page 432, number 1152.

On '96 roll page 448, number 537, as Mary Ann Curtis.

Applicant on '96 roll, page 567, number 108,

- Q These children are both living now? A Yes.

Applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and two children. His wife is identified on the rolls of '80 and '96 as a native Cherokee. Her change of name is accounted for by the official certificate of the marriage license and certificate filed herewith, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The applicant is shown to have been married to his wife in '92 by the document just referred to. He has lived with his wife in the Cherokee Nation ever since his marriage, and is identified with her on the roll of '96, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. Their two children are identified with their parents on the rolls of '96. They are living at this time and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation; and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Com'r Needles:--The name of Charles Work is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as well as the Census rolls of 1896. The name of his wife Eliza also appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 by her Cherokee name, and on the roll of 1896 by her present name of Eliza Work. The names of their children, John, Jesse, and William appear upon the census roll of 1896. They all being fully identified according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and having made satisfactory proof as to their residence, they will all be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood.

---000000000---

J. O. Rosson, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 24th day of September, 1900.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Vinita, I.T. September 20, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF MARY A. CAULK FOR THE RESUMPTION OF HERSELF AND CHILDREN AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

The said Mary A. Caulk, being sworn and examined by Commissioner T. R. Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Mary A. Caulk.
Q What is your post office? A Tiff City, Missouri.
Q What district do you live in? A Delaware.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Thirty years.
THE COMMISSIONER: I find in the records of the Dawes Commission that one Mary A. Caulk was admitted to citizenship in case No. 8326, Court case No. 250.

Q Are you the identical Mary A. Caulk mentioned in this record? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you been married? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your present name? A Caulk, the same name.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have been living here off and on for thirty years.

Q Continuously? A Yes, sir.

Q Is your name on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A I don't know. My first husband's name was John H. Rogers. He was a citizen and we lived there about seven years, and he died.

Q What year was that? A Well, that was in 1890, and he died, I think, about 1876, somewhere along there. I don't exactly remember the date.

Q What district was that? A Delaware.

Q For whom do you apply for? A Myself and three children.

Q What are the names of your three children? A Beulah, nineteen years old, Jesse J., seventeen years old.

Q What is the name of the next one? A Laura, fifteen years old.

Q Do their names appear in the document admitting you? A Yes, sir.

Q Their names do not appear upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: The name of Mary A. Caulk and the names of her children Beulah, Jesse and Laura, appear upon the rolls of the Dawes Commission in case No. 8326, Court case No. 250, as being admitted to citizenship. They have made satisfactory proof as to their residence, and the said Mary and her said children will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by the

The undersigned being sworn, states that as Commissioner to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he has reviewed the testimony and other proceedings in this case, and that the same is a correct and complete transcript of the proceedings thereat.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of October, 1900.

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., June 25, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Milton M. Gault, for the enrollment of himself and children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

--The applicant in this case was notified by registered letter on June 10, 1902, that on the 25th day of June, 1902, at the offices of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, testimony would be introduced tending to disprove his right to enrollment as a member of the Cherokee tribe of Indians in Indian Territory; and was further notified that, if he desired, he might, on said day, appear before the Commission either in person or by attorney, when an opportunity would be given him to introduce any testimony he might deem necessary affecting his citizenship.

Applicant has this day, to-wit: the 25th day of June, 1902, been called and fails to respond either in person or by attorney.

THOMAS T. ROGERS, called as a witness, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Thomas T. Rogers.
Q Where do you live? A I live on Cowardin Prairie, Cherokee Nation near the Missouri line.
Q Are you acquainted with Milton M. Gault?
A I have been since the year 1870.
Q Where was he residing when you first learned to know him?
A In the Cherokee Nation, there on the prairie.
Q How long did he continue to reside there after you knew him?
Where was he living when you first met him?
A In the State of Missouri.
Q How long did he continue to live in Missouri?
A The old people and his wife continued to live there all their lives, from 1870 up until their deaths; the old lady has, and the old gentleman died about five years ago, I think.
Q Where is Milton M. Gault living now? A Near Chelsea, I. T.
Q How long has he been residing in the Cherokee Nation?
A I think he moved there in 1887 or 1888.
Q Has he lived there continuously since that time?
A Yes sir, I think he has.
Q Do you know Pleasant Gault? A Yes sir.
Q Where is he living? A Out near Milton I think.
Q How long has he been living in the Cherokee Nation?
A I don't know, I think he came after Milton did. Two or three years after Milton moved there. He is a young man, and he married, and as soon as he married I think he moved out there.
Q About how many years ago was it? A I can't tell you.
Q Has he been living in the Cherokee Nation more than five years?
A I think he has lived five years in the Nation.
Q Do you know Mary Hall? A Yes sir.
Q Where is she living at this time?
A Near Tiff City, Missouri.
Q How long have you known her? A I have known her a long time, since she was a little girl.
Q Has she ever lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A Not to my knowledge.
Q When did you last see her at Tiff City, Missouri?
A Well, it's long--I am up there frequently, and I can't state exactly when I did see her last.
Q Have you any idea about how long ago it was?

A I could safely say a year, I guess anyway.

Q Is she married? A I think not.

Q Where do her parents live? A One of them lives out west, I don't know where; her mother is dead. She died several years ago.

Q Do you know Mary A. Caulk? A Yes sir.

Q Where is she living? A Near Chelsea now.

Q How long has she been living there?

A She has lived there for the last year or so I think.

Q Had she been living in the Indian Territory prior to that time?

A She had as the wife of my brother. My brother married her in 1868 or '69, and he died in 1877.

Q What became of her then? A She married another man and left the country.

Q Do you know where she went? A She went into the State of Missouri. I can read this statement here; I have got it all down here.

Q Well, state what you may know about the residence of these applicants?

A (Witness reads from a manuscript) I first became acquainted with the Caulks in the year 1870. I knew the old gentleman Mr. Lebanon and his wife Rosa Caulk, and their children Milton, Mary, Margaret, Edward, Pleasant, Fannie, Myra and Laura, eight in number. The children were all raised on a farm owned by their father Mr. Lebanon Caulk in the State of Missouri, adjoining the Seneca Nation, and about three or four miles north of the Cherokee and Seneca lines. They were always known as citizens of the State of Missouri. In the year 1887 or 1888, Milton moved into the Cherokee Nation about forty-five or fifty miles into the interior, and set up a claim for a right in the Cherokee Nation.

In the year 1868 or '69, my brother married Mary K. Caulk, a sister of Milton and daughter of Lebanon and Rosa Caulk, at or near her home in the State of Missouri and moved into the Cherokee Nation and they were living on Cowskin Prairie when I first saw her in 1870. As the wife of my brother she lived in the Cherokee Nation from the above date, 1868, to the year 1879, when she married herself out of an adopted right in the Nation, her former husband having died, and moved out of the Cherokee Nation to the Northern part of the State of Missouri, and I think lived up there two or three years, then back to Tiff City, Missouri, Seneca Nation, Belleville, and the mines of Joplin; then back to Tiff City, Missouri, where she lost her other man. She lived in the Seneca Nation as a renter, then back into the State again until within the last year she moved out into the Cherokee Nation, and now lives out near Chelsea, Indian Territory.

I administered on my brother's estate after his death in 1879, and the judge of the district, under whom I was appointed, and under whose instructions I was, allowed her a child's part in the estate of the personal property, and not of land or improvements, as the latter was considered public domain, and she not being a citizen by blood, and was not recognized as such, was not entitled to such. That was the law then when I settled up with her in 1879. Since that time she has never lived in the Cherokee Nation and made it her home until now.

I think Rosa Hall, a niece of hers, has never lived in the Cherokee Nation any length of time. She was raised in the State of Missouri with Rosa Caulk, her grandmother up to her death, and now lives with her aunt near Tiff City, Missouri, in the Seneca Nation.

By Mr. Hastings: When did her grand-mother, Rosa Caulk, die?

A I think it must have been in about the last year or two. She died in the State of Missouri.

By the Examination: Mr. Rogers, do you know Rosa Ann Martin?

The daughter of Martin Caulk? A I know her when she was a girl.

Q Do you know where she is living? A Near Chelsea, I think.

Q Do you know how long she has been living there ?
 A Since Milton moved out there I think. He has been living there from 1887.
 Q Do you know Robert Hall ? A I used to know him when he was a boy.
 Q Where is he living ? A I don't know anything about him.
 Q Do you know Newton Hall ? A Yes sir, I know him, but I don't know where he is living.
 Q Do you know where Henry Hall is living ? A No sir.
 Q Do you know where Edward Smith is living ?
 A There are two Eds. One is Milton's son.
 Q This one is Milton's son. A No sir. These Halls are descendants of Margaret Hall. She died. I know her, and the children, when they were children.
 By Mr. Hastings: Is there anything else you want to state about this case Mr. Rogers ? A That's all I know.
 By the Commission: When was that statement of yours made Mr. Rogers ? A I prepared it.
 Q You prepared it after you received a letter from the Commission requesting you to appear here as a witness ?
 A I prepared it just a day or two before I left home. I got to thinking about it, and thought I could do better by writing down what I know.
 Q Did you make it for the purpose of refreshing your memory ?
 A Yes sir.

The Commission: This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following cases:

Edward H. Smith,	3572	Henry Hall,	2185
Newton Hall,	2184	Robert Hall,	2183
Rosa H. Martin,	2180	Harry A. Smith,	2149
Bera Hall,	2182	Edmund Smith,	2148

as well as the case at bar, being that of Milton H. Smith, # 2149. All of the applicants in the above named cases were notified by registered letter on June 10, 1902, that testimony would be heard at the office of the Commission in Washington, Indian Territory, on the 26th day of June, 1902, to disprove their right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation. The applicants in all of said cases have this day been called and fail to respond either in person or by attorney.

E. C. Bagwell, an oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings had in the above entitled cases, and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

AS WELL AS THE CASE OF THE [REDACTED] IN THE [REDACTED] OF [REDACTED]

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., June 26, 1902.

In the matter of the application of MILTON M. GANIX, ET AL.,
for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

Appearances:

Applicants appear by George B. Denison, Esq., of Vinita, Ind. Ter., and N. B. Macey, Esq., Muskogee;

Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings, Esq.

—On the 10th day of June, 1902, applicants in this case were notified by registered letter, that, on the 20th day of June, 1902, at the offices of the Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, testimony would be introduced tending to disprove their right to enrollment as members of the Cherokee tribe of Indians in Indian Territory.

On the 25th day of June, 1902, Thomas T. Rogers, appeared before the Commission, for the purpose of submitting testimony as regards the right of Milton M. Ganix, et al, to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and his testimony was, on said day, inadvertently accepted, and an order was made to the effect that the applicants had on said the 25th day of June, 1902, been called, and failed to respond either in person or by attorney.

N. B. Macey: We have some objections in writing and ask that they be incorporated in the record.

The Commission: Attorneys for applicants offer the following objections:

First:-- With due respect to the officer assigned to this hearing, (or the Commissioner, if there is one), the persons whose claim to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation is now called in question object to any hearing, or the taking of any testimony in the case, without such hearing, or taking of testimony, be by a majority of the Commission, because the law nowhere authorizes a hearing, or the taking of testimony by any other person or body than the Commission, and a majority of the Commission must be present at all hearings, or the taking of testimony, in cases of citizenship.

Second:-- They object to any hearing, or the taking of any testimony, in this case, because the action of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on the application of these persons made under the Act of June 10, 1896, was final and conclusive, is binding now and cannot be questioned or enquired into by the Commission.

Third:-- They object to any hearing, or the taking of any testimony, in this case, because the Commission under the authority conferred upon it by law, has heard the case and pronounced its decision, and is without any jurisdiction to further act in any manner in the case except to transmit its decision to the Secretary of the Interior.

Mr. Hastings: The Cherokee Nation desires to state, with respect to the objections filed by attorneys representing applicants, that, under section twenty one of the Curtis Bill, applicants are required to be bona fide residents of the Cherokee Nation, and that, inasmuch as that act was passed subsequent to the alleged admission of these parties to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, and inasmuch as the Commission now hearing this case gets its jurisdiction from the Act of June 22, 1898, that it certainly has jurisdiction, and it certainly is perfectly competent for the Commission to enquire into the question of the present residence of the applicants, or their residence on June 25, 1898, and since their admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the court upon appeal from the decision of the Commission in 1898.

With respect to the first objection made by attorneys for applicants, the Cherokee Nation desires to say that it is a misquotation of the law, because the law does not say, anywhere, that a majority of the Commission, in person, shall be present and hear these applications for citizenship.

The Commission: The objections of the attorneys for the applicants will be noted, and the testimony heard.

H. E. Hasty: We will reserve an exception. The attorneys for applicants desire to further object to the taking of any testimony, because there is neither member of the Commission present.

Mr. Hastings: The Cherokee Nation, in answer to the objection, states that the Commission is represented by its duly appointed and acting official, and that all the acts of the present examiner are submitted to and affirmed by the Commission, before the same is submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

H. E. Hasty: In answer to the statement of the attorney for the Cherokee Nation, counsel for applicants still contend that it is necessary for the Commission to be present at the hearing of the testimony in 2 cases of this kind. Now, with reference to the testimony of this witness Rogers, in order to expedite matters and do away with the necessity of another hearing, we are willing that the testimony of this witness be considered as taken today, providing we are allowed the privilege of contradicting him, the same as if we had been present at the taking of his testimony, and laid the proper foundation for an impeachment or contradiction.

The Commission: You will be given that privilege.

JIM CHILDERS, called as a witness on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by W. W. Hastings:

- Q What is your name? A Jim Childers.
 Q What is your post office address? A Chelsoa.
 Q How long has that been your post office?
 A It has been my post office for a year and a half.
 Q Where did you come from there? A From Afton to Chelsoa.
 Q How long had Afton been your post office before that?
 A About a year.
 Q Where did you come from to Afton, I. T.?
 A Tiff City, Missouri.
 Q When did you leave Tiff City? A It will seem to be 3 years.
 Q Then you left there in 1896? A About that time.
 Q Did you leave there in the spring or summer of that year?
 A I left there in the spring, the first of January.
 Q Was it three years last January, or three years next January?
 A It will be three years next January.
 Q Then you left there the first of January, 1900?
 A When I moved all my effects away from Afton, but I continued to move about the middle before that.
 Q Are you a son of Sam? A Yes sir.
 Q Were your family residing there until January, 1900? A Yes sir.

Q What business were you in ? A Farming.
Q Do you know Mary A. Gaulk ? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know her up near Tiff City ? A Yes sir.
Q Where was she living at the time you left there, say in January, 1900, three years ago next January?
A If I am not mistaken she was living in the town of Tiff City at that time.
Q Is Tiff City in Missouri ? A Yes sir.
Q How big a town is it ? A About three hundred people.
Q Was she married at that time ? A No sir.
Q Did you know her when she married Rogers ? A Yes sir.
Q After his death she married whom ? A Cork.
Q When did he die ? A I don't know the date.
Q About how long ago ? A It's been, to the best of my recollection, ten or eleven years ago. I wouldn't say positive as to that. It has been a number of years.
Q How long had this woman been living in Tiff City when you left there about the first of January, 1900 ?
A I don't think but a short time.
Q Well about how long ? A I might be safe in saying that she was there three or four months.
Q Where did she go from there ? A From the Territory.
Q What part of the Territory ? A I think she came from the Seneca reservation.
Q That is right up close to Tiff City, Missouri ? A Yes sir.
Q Have you known her from January, 1896, to January, 1900, to ever live in the Cherokee Nation proper ?
A She was there then, but I have been told since then that she lived in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Up to that time ? A I don't know.
Q Didn't you live there ? A Yes sir.
Q Up to 1900, at the time you left there, from 1896 up to 1900, did she ever live in the Cherokee Nation ?
A I don't think I have any knowledge of it.
Q Did you live in that neighborhood up to that time ? A Yes sir.
Q How far from Tiff City ? A Three miles west.
Q How far from the Missouri line ? A About two miles and a half I suppose.
Q Were you on the Missouri line ? A No sir, about three miles west.
Q You live out about Chelsea now ? A Yes sir.
Q Where does this woman live now ? A Mary A. Gaulk ?
Q Yes ? A She lives near Chelsea.
Q Has she moved there recently ? A Yes sir.
Q About how long ago ? A I think she moved there last fall or winter, I am not positive as to time. She had been there a few days, or a week or two before I knew she was there.
Q Since that time she has been living there continuously ?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you know where she was in June of 1896, four years ago now ?
A I can't say positive.
Q You know she wasn't living in the Cherokee Nation don't you ?
A Not at that time no sir.
Q Do you say she was not living in the Nation at that time ?
A No, not to my knowledge.
Q You were living over there weren't you ? A Yes sir.
Q Don't you know whether she was living there ?
A I didn't see her there.
Q You never saw her living in the Cherokee Nation at that time ?
A No sir.
Q You never knew of her being in the Cherokee Nation at that time ?
A No sir.

Q Do you know Dora Hall ? A I know one Dora Hall.
Q Where did you know Dora Hall ? A I know her in Missouri.
Q In what part of Missouri ? A The south-west part.
Q Her father's name was Gale Hall ? A Yes sir.
Q Is that the one you know ? A Yes sir.
Q When did she leave Missouri ? A I don't know.
Q When did you know her in Missouri ? A I know her when I left there in 1900.
Q Was she living there in January, 1900, when you left there ? A Yes sir.
Q How long after you moved away until she moved away ? A I don't know that she has ever moved away; I don't know anything about her since I moved away.
Q You have never seen her since ? A I saw her at my house at Afton, about eighteen months ago; that's the only time I have seen her since I left Missouri.
Q Where was she from over there ? A She came from up there somewhere about Tiff City.
Q Her father was Gale Hall ? A Yes sir.
Q You know him ? A Yes sir.
Q That is the same one you are speaking of now ? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Robert Hall ? A Yes sir.
Q Is he a brother of Dora ? A Gale Hall was Robert's brother. He claimed he was about 27 years old in 1900. He claimed he used to live in McDonald County, Missouri.
Q Got a wife by the name of Ada Hall; did you know her ? A No sir.
Q A child named Mada, did you know it ? A No sir.
Q Well where did you know this Robert Hall that you speak of ? A I knew him in McDonald County, Missouri.
Q When did you know him there ? A It has been eighteen or twenty years ago.
Q How long did you continue to know him there ? A I knew him from the time he was a child up until that time.
Q You haven't known him for a number of years ? A No sir.
Q You haven't known him since 1896 ? A No sir.
Q Do you know Newton Hall ? A Yes sir.
Q Is he a brother to Robert and Dora ? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you know him ? A At the same place.
Q When did you last know him in Missouri ? A Not since I knew Bob, about eighteen or twenty years ago.
Q Did you know Henry Hall ? A Yes sir.
Q Have you known him in the last six years ? A No sir.
Q Don't know anything about his residence since then ? A No sir.
Q I believe you say Milton M. Gault is living out near Chelsea ? A Yes sir.
Q Is Pleasant Milton's son ? A Brother.
Q Where does he live ? A Near Cabin.
Q How long has he lived there ? A Six or seven years I think.
Q How long has he lived in the Cherokee Nation ? A Since 1898 to my knowledge.
Q Do you know Edward M. Gault ? Milton's son ? A Yes sir.
Q Does he live with his father ? A He is living on his father's farm.
Q Do you know Rosa Martin ? A Yes sir.
Q Is that one of Pleasant Gault's daughters ? A That's one of Martin's.
Q Where does she live ? A She lives near Chelsea, in that vicinity.
Q Has she lived there since 1896 ? A Yes sir, she has lived there since 1898.

Examined by George E. Henison:

- Q Where were you living in June, 1898? A I was living three miles west of Tiff City, in Missouri, in the Territory.
- Q Do you know, during that month, where Mary A. Caulk was living?
- A No sir, I don't know exactly where she was living. She was living somewhere in that section of country though; I don't know just what place she was living on at that time.
- Q Then you do not know whether she was living in the Cherokee Nation or Missouri at that time? A She wasn't living in Missouri, she was living in the Seneca reservation to the best of my knowledge.
- Q Do you know? I don't want the best of your knowledge. Do you know where she did live? A I can't tell you what place she lived on, now.
- Q Do you know that she lived in the Seneca Nation in June, 1898?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know how long before that she had lived in that Nation?
- A No sir.
- Q Do you know how long after that she lived there?
- A No sir, not exactly.
- Q How near do you know? A She must have moved out some time in the year 1899, sometime during that year she must have moved out to the best of my recollection. Of course I never noted this down.
- Q Do you know the place in the Cherokee Nation that John H. Rogers and his then wife Mary A. Caulk now, made? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know any time that Mary A. Caulk lived on that place?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know when it was? A I don't recollect just the year but it was somewhere about 1869 or 1870, in there somewhere, that they made that place and moved on it.
- Q I am not talking about when they made the place?
- A They lived on the place after they made it until Roger's death.
- Q Do you know anything about her living on the place in 1898 or 1899, or 1900? A No sir.
- Q You don't know anything about her having been put off the place by a process from the United States Court? A No sir.
- Q Then you don't know anything about her immediately prior to that time? A No sir. I heard that she was put off the place, but I don't know anything about that.
- Q That place is in the Cherokee Nation isn't it? A Yes sir.
- Q If you heard she was put off the place it must have been in the Cherokee Nation? A She was put off that place in the Cherokee Nation, but that was after I left.
- Q You don't know how long she had been living on the place before you heard that she was put off? A No sir. I don't even know when she went on.
- Q You know these improvements that she and her first husband had made away over yonder in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q You know, don't you, that she lived there after her husband's death? A Yes sir.
- Q Well now, taking 1898 up to 1900, do you know whether or not she had any property in the Cherokee Nation?
- A I don't know of any.
- Q Do you know whether she had or not?
- A I don't know of any property, in the Cherokee Nation, at that time, unless it was the place her and her husband put in.
- Q You know of that improvement? A Yes sir.
- Q That is still known as the improvement that she and her husband put in? A Yes sir.
- Q Some of the family are still occupying or controlling it?
- A They are controlling it, yes sir.

Examined by W. W. Hastings:

- Q Her first husband died about 1878 or 1879, didn't he? Rogers?
 A Somewhere along there, yes sir.
 Q This woman, at that time, claimed to be an intermarried citizen didn't she? A That was the supposition.
 Q She married a white man and forfeited her rights?

Mr. Denison: We object to that. We object to the testimony as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

The Commission: The objection will be noted.

Mr. Hastings: She married a white man, and her rights were then considered as forfeited?

Mr. Denison: The same objection.

The witness: That's the way it was construed at that time, yes sir.

- Q About how long did she live on this place after she married that white man? A I don't recollect.
 Q About how long? A I will say somewhere in the neighborhood of a year.
 Q About how long after her first husband's death until she married the second time? A I can't answer that, but it must have been about two years.
 Q For about two years after her first husband's death, or about a year after her marriage to her second husband, who was a white man, did she live on this place at any time before you left there about the first of January, 1900? A Not that I have any knowledge of.
 Q How far did you live from the place? A About six miles, I reckon.
 Q She wasn't put off that place before you left there?
 A No sir.
 Q She wasn't living on it when you left there?
 A Not that I know of.
 Q You left there about January the first, 1900?
 A About that time?
 Q When you left there she was living over at Tiff City, Missouri?
 A Yes sir, she went there to send her children to school.
 Q She went from the Seneca Nation ever there? A Yes sir.

Geo. E. Denison: We move to exclude that portion of the testimony relating to Mary A. Conk's having married a white man and thereby forfeited her rights of citizenship; and that portion of the testimony with reference to her being married as an intermarried citizen during her first marriage.

MARY A. CONK, called as a witness on behalf of applicants, being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by Geo. E. Denison:

- Q What is your name? A Mary A. Conk.
 Q You are the daughter of Rhoda Conk? A Yes sir.
 Q About when did Rhoda Conk die? A She died two years ago this coming September, in 1900.
 Q Was your first husband? A John Rogers.
 Q What was the date of his death? A I think he died in 1878 or 1880. I won't be positive. I don't exactly know, but about that time.
 Q How long was he your husband? A We were married in 1868 and he died in 1878, I reckon, or along about 1880, something near that time.

Q Where were you living during the time that you were his wife ?
A On Cowardin prairie. The first year we moved out to Cabin Creek eight miles from Vinita, then we moved back to the Cowardin prairie.
Q Was that in the Cherokee Nation ?
A Yes sir, in the Cherokee Nation.
Q What, if anything, in the way of improvements, did you and he make there in the Cherokee Nation ?
A We had one hundred acres enclosed, besides our orchard, about two acres.
Q That was an improvement upon the public domain of the Cherokee Nation, was it ? A Yes sir.
Q And you lived upon it from the time you first commenced to make it until his death ? A Yes sir.
Q Did you remain upon it after his death ? A Yes sir.
Q How long ? A I lived there most two years. I lived there over two years. It wasn't quite two years when I was married. I was married in August, and it would have been two years in October that he died. I lived on there until February.
Q Were there any children born of that marriage ? A Yes sir.
Q How many ? A Four; but two living children.
Q Who owns that improvement now ? A Well my daughter claims it, it belongs to both I suppose, at least it ought to.
Q If, at any time recently, you have lived upon that place, state when it was and for how long ? A Well, I lived on that place about--let's see, three years ago this last March.
Q Was that when you moved on the place ? A Yes sir, the last time.
Q And about how long did you live there ?
A I lived there until the coming April a year.
Q How did you come to move off the place ?
A Why they had a marshal sent there and threw me out.
Q Under a process from the United States Court ? A Yes sir. Rogers came in and taken possession, and I had to give the place up.
Q Do you know whether a bond was given in that case ?
A They claimed that they did.
Q You didn't see it ? A No sir.
Q Who are the plaintiffs in this case ? A Ella Kayler.
Q Who is Ella Kayler ? A She is my daughter.
Q The other plaintiff is her husband ? A Yes sir.
Q She is a daughter by your first marriage ? A Yes sir.
Q How when you were put off that place by a marshal, where did you go, and why ? A I moved just over the Seneca line; I could get no house on the Cherokee side; and it was bad weather, and I moved over there in a house just about a mile across the line.
Q Did you leave any property of yours in the Cherokee Nation beside these improvements ? A I left a couple of hogs, and a pig, and a few things.
Q Did you make your home in the Seneca Nation, or simply moved there temporarily because that was the only place where you could get a place to live ?

Mr. Harrison: I suggest that that is about as leading and dangerously suggestive a question as could be asked. I would like for the record to show my objection.

A I moved there because I had no place else to go to.
Q State what effort, if any, you made to find a place to live in in the Cherokee Nation at that time ?

Mr. Harrison: I object. I think there is no good excuse for a woman to have made the state. She had no right to go there anyway.
Mr. Harrison: I think she had a right to get a place to cover her children.

The witness: I lived there on the place with the consent of my daughter.

Q Where were you born? A In California.

Q Do you remember what year? A 1888.

Q When did you first come to the Cherokee Nation?

A When I was married.

Q To Mr. Rogers? A Yes sir.

Q You were one of the parties who made application with Rhoda Gaulk for enrollment? A Yes sir.

Q Where were you living in the year 1896?

A I declare I can't say, I haven't kept no note of it.

Q It was when the application was made, in the fall of 1896, under the Act of June 10, 1896. The question is whether you were living in the Cherokee Nation at the time your application was made to the Dawes Commission for your enrollment?

A I think I was living at Tiff then.

Q Do you remember, after 1896, where you first lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I left there the last of March or first of April, and went on the home place.

Q What year? A Three years ago this last March.

Q March of 1899? A I suppose it was, you can count back and see. I never kept no note of it.

Q You are living now in the neighborhood of Chelsea? A Yes sir.

Q When did you move there? A Last fall.

Q Where from? A From Missouri there on my mother's place.

Q How long had you been at your mother's place before you moved to Chelsea? A Just about a year, or hardly so long.

Q Have you heard of anything that Thomas Rogers has said with reference to getting possession of that place and depriving you of your claim as a citizen?

Mr. Hastings: I want to say that I will not object to it if Tom Rogers said it to you.

The witness: Yes, he said he was----

Mr. Hastings: Now, I want to treat you nice about this matter, but you wait until those objections are made. If you heard it from Tom Rogers, I have no objection, because that lays a proper foundation.

Mr. Hastings: You expressly agreed that we might take this testimony if we agreed to that testimony taken yesterday.

Mr. Hastings: You know you can lay that foundation no other way except to bring him in yourself. You can't bring this woman in. If he said it to any of your witnesses here we wouldn't object.

The witness: I never had time to get my witnesses.

Mr. Hastings: Well how did you happen to come.

The witness: My brother came and told me that he had a notice to come here today, but I never got no notice.

The Commissioner: It appears from the records of the Commission that the applicant in this case was notified by registered letter under date of June 15, 1898, that testimony would be introduced this day tending to deprive her right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, said registered letter having been sent to her at Tiff City, Missouri, which she gave as her post office address when the application was made.

The witness: I have written to the Commission about it. I have heard a good deal. I have heard of him making several threats, but he never made them to me.

Mr. Hastings: I would suggest that the Commission rule on this now.

The Commission: I think we will just note the objections.

Examined by Geo. B. Denison:

Q Have you ever heard that anything was said by Kepler or his wife with reference to getting possession of the place in the Cherokee Nation, to deprive you of your rights as a citizen?

Mr. Hastings: The Cherokee Nation objects to this question because nobody knows any better than counsel himself that it is entirely immaterial and incompetent and irrelevant.

The Commission: Answer the question.

Witness: Yes sir, I have heard of it. He told Senator Tandy that he was going to deprive us of our rights if he could, and that he was doing it for spite work, and I didn't have time to get an affidavit after I heard of this.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the Cherokee Nation and moves to strike that out of the record, because it is clearly immaterial and inadmissible, as it has nothing to do with the issue in this case, because the issue in this case is only as to the residence of the applicant, and those contentions tend in no wise to throw any light on the case, and was only injected into the case by attorney for the applicant for the purpose of prejudicing the Commission in this case.

Witness examined by Mr. Hastings:

Q Where were you living when you made application to the Commission in 1896 to be enrolled? A I stated awhile ago that I thought that I—in 1896, how many years has that been?

Q It will soon be six years? A I must have been living at Tiff City about that time.

Q You mean Tiff City, Missouri? A Yes sir.

Q Where were you living when you got notice that you had been admitted by the United States Court upon appeal from the decision of the Dawes Commission? A I got it from the papers. I read it in the papers first.

Q Where were you living? A Tiff City.

Q When, after that, did you move away from Tiff City, Missouri?

A It was the next spring I think.

Q Well now, what spring was that? A Three years ago this last spring.

Q Are you positive that you moved away from there in March, 1899?

A I am positive that I moved away from Tiff City three years ago last spring.

Q Was it in March or April? A About April.

Q Did you move from Tiff City down to this Negro's place?

A Yes sir.

Q How long did you remain on the place? A Till the next April, a year.

Q Was your daughter married when you moved down there?

A Yes sir.

Q What was her first name? A Ella.

Q Was she married when you moved down on the place? A Yes sir.

She was living in a camp, and her husband had gone to the mines to work, and she was sent to live on the place.

Q You had been living at Tiff City when you moved down there ?

A Yes sir.

Q You had been living at Tiff City since being admitted by the Court until that time ? A Yes sir. It came out in the paper, and I read it in the paper, and I think it was in the spring that I moved to the Territory.

Q Well now, you say you lived there how long before you were put off ? A I lived there from the last of March or the first of April till the coming April a year. A little over a year I was on the place.

Q Do you know this witness Jim Childers ? A Yes sir, he lived with us on the place for one year when I was married to Mr. Rogers.

Q Did you know him when you moved out there the last of March or the first of April in 1899 ? A He was there living in the Seneca Nation or had moved to Arden, I can't say which. I think he moved to near Arden a short time after I left Tiff.

Q He said he moved to Arden in January, 1900. Can it be possible that you moved down to the Rogers place the last of March or first of April, 1900 ? A No sir, it was three years ago.

Q You are positive about that ? A Yes sir I am positive. My mother will be dead two years in September, and it was March of the year before she died that I moved on the home place, which would make it three years.

Q Then you left there in April, 1900, and went back to Tiff City ? A No sir.

Q Where did you go ? A When they throwed me out of the home place, I said I lived across the line.

Q In Missouri ? A On the Seneca side.

Q How long did you live there ? A Couple of months.

Q Then where did you go ? A Back to the Territory.

Q On whose place ? A Across the line. I moved over there and lived in a tent. I had no house, and moved over and lived in a tent.

Q Near whose place ? A Near the home place.

Q How long did you live there in a tent ? A I lived there from in June till September or October.

Q Then where did you go ? A Up to the home place—to mother's place.

Q Is that in Missouri ? A Yes sir. Then I moved down to the Territory.

Q When did you move to Chelsea in the Territory ?

A Last October.

Q Where does Mrs. Hall live ? Where does she live now ?

A She is living with my sister.

Q Well, what is her name ? A Laura Davis.

Q Where does your sister live ? A Near Tiff City.

Q In Missouri ? A Yes sir.

Q How long has she been living there ? A She has been there with her ever since mother's death.

Q She has lived up there with your sister ever since your mother's death ? A Yes sir. She came down here and stayed a month or a couple of months at her brother's, Robert Hall.

Q She has lived up there with your sister ever since your mother's death ? A Yes sir.

Q Was that in September, 1899 ? A No sir, two years ago this coming September mother died.

Q In 1900 then ? A Yes sir.

Q Where had she been living before your mother's death ?

A With mother.

Q Well how long ? A My mother raised her.

Q When she has lived there all her life ? A Yes sir.

Q Is she living there yet ? A Yes sir. She is in the Seneca Nation, and she is not in the Territory.

Q When did she leave your mother's place in Tiff City and go to the Seneca Nation ? A My mother lived near Tiff City and my father lived near the town in the Seneca Nation.

Q As I understand, Dora Hall lived with your mother until September, 1900, and after your mother died she went over to live with your sister in the Seneca Nation? A Yes sir.

Q That was after September, 1900? A Yes sir.

Q Your mother raised her? A Yes sir, my mother got her when she was small and raised her.

Geo. B. Denison: The attorneys for applicants in this case desire to offer in evidence and annex to the testimony of this witness, a certified copy of the record of the case of Ella Kepler and A. O. Kepler vs Mary A. Caulk, now pending in the United States Court at Vinita, Indian Territory.

The Commission: The request of the attorney for applicants will be complied with, and the document filed.

JIM CHILDERS, re-called, testified as follows:

Examined by W. W. Hastings:

Q Your name is Jim Childers? A Yes sir.

Q You are the same man that was on the stand a moment ago? A

Yes sir.

Q You know the applicant here, Mary A. Caulk? A Yes sir.

Q You testified that you knew the old Rogers place?

A Yes sir.

Q Made by she and her husband? A Yes sir.

Q About how far did you say you lived from there before your removal to Aften? A It is in the neighborhood of six miles.

Q In what direction from you? A South.

Q Did you have occasion to go by there any?

A Why during the time that I lived there on that particular place I think I went by there twice during the four years that I lived on that particular place..

Q Now are you--can you remember, and think over, and be positive as to the time that you left there that vicinity for Aften? I want to know the date you left there if you can recollect it? I would like for you to be positive about it if you can?

A Well, let's see. I am positive, or think I am at least, that I left there in 1900.

Q In January, 1900? A About then.

Q This woman has stated here that she lived on that place from the last days of March, 1899 on up until April of 1900. Could that woman have lived upon that place for eight or nine months in the year 1899, while you lived there in the vicinity, and you not have known it? A I presume she could have done it, but I don't hardly believe that it is probable that she could.

Q Where did you say she lived from the March before you left that neighborhood, out from March, 1899, to January, 1900?

A Well if I am not mistaken in the year she moved about a mile and a half west and a half a mile south of where we lived during the spring and summer season.

Q Of that year 1899? A I say if I am not mistaken in the dates. When she left there she went to Tiff City.

Q Is that in the Cherokee Nation or the Seneca Nation?

A It is in the Seneca Nation, but near the Cherokee line.

Q That's near you? A Right at two miles.

Q You say there is where she lived in the summer of 1899?

A If I am not mistaken, yes sir.

Q What I want to know about is the summer before you left there?

A Yes sir, without I have made a mistake in the date, she lived there when I left that country.

Q On whose place? A I think the place belonged to Waryer.
Q In the Seneca Nation? A Yes sir.
Q She moved from there to Tiff City? A Yes sir.
Q Did you hear of her living down there on this Rogers place when you lived there? Between the date of her admission to citizenship and the time you left there?
A Yes sir I heard that she had moved on the place.
Q When did you hear that? A After I had moved away.
Q I want to know if you heard before you left there that she lived over there? A No sir, I didn't hear of it before I left there.
Q Did you hear of her living on the place after you left there?
A Yes sir. I think she moved on about the time I left there.
A Yes sir.

Examined by Geo. B. Denison:

Q All that you pretend to know is what has been told you of her living on the Rogers place before you came to Afton?
A No sir. I knowed of her living there before I moved to Afton. After that I heard that she moved back.
Q All the knowledge that you have of her living on the place is what you heard?
A What I got by letter. My friends there wrote me that Mrs. Gault had moved on her old place.
Q You have no personal knowledge as to whether she moved then or afterwards? A She was living in Tiff City to the best of my knowledge when I moved from there.
Q Then you may be mistaken about when you moved?
A Yes sir, I may be, because I have got nothing to base my memory on.

Examined by Mr. Hastings:

Q Just now when Judge Denison asked you about her living on this place before you went to Afton, you meant that it was when she and her first husband lived on it? A Yes sir.
Q Then you never knew of her living on it any more until after you left there? A Yes sir.
Q Then, according to your best judgment, it was in 1900 that you left there? A Yes sir.

United States of America }
Indian Territory } ss.
Northern District }

Pleas before the Honorable Joseph A. Gill, judge of the United States Court in the Indian Territory, sitting in and for the Northern District thereof, at Vinita, in a cause therein pending wherein Ella Kepler and another are plaintiffs and Mary A. Caulk is defendant:

On the Twelvth day of March, 1900 there was filed in the said court a complaint at law and an affidavit which are in words and figures as follows:

Ella Kepler, and her husband	In the United States Court
A.C. Kepler, Plaintiffs.	in the Indian Territory,
vs.	Northern District sitting
Mary A. Caulk, Defendant.	at Vinita, December Term, 1900

Complaint in Unlawful Detainer.

Plaintiffs say that they are husband and wife and both of them are citizens of the Cherokee Nation. That about March, 1, 1899 the plaintiffs were the owners of an improvement lying in Delaware District Cherokee Nation, known as the John Rogers farm, located on the North side of Cowskin prairie and just west of the Johnson Parke farm and about one mile west of the line dividing the Indian Territory from the state of Missouri. That at said time they leased said farm to one Sam Warler till March 1, 1900, and he occupied the same as their tenants till March 1, 1900. That during the time said Warler occupied said premises the defendant herein with the consent and acquiescence and connivance of said Warler entered upon the said farm, and moved into the dwelling house thereon with said Warler. That said Warler vacated the premises in March, 1900, but that the defendant after getting into possession in manner aforesaid refused to vacate the premises but still detained and now detains the following portion of the said farm; the yards and lots and the dwelling house and the outhouses connected therewith, being the houses and and lot at which said Sam Marler lived during the year 1899, the lot being inclosed with rails and the yard being enclosed with plank and rail and ^{together} containing about two acres; also a strip of ground on the farm lying south west of the house containing about thirty acres and being the same now designated by a furrow plowed around it. That the right of defendant to occupy said premises expired March 1, 1900 and she refused to vacate the premises as described above; that on March 10, 1900 the plaintiffs demanded possession of the premises in writing of the defendant a copy of said notice being as follows; To Mary A. Caulk; We demand that you immediately deliver to us the possession of the houses and land you occupy which were formerly leased to Sam Marler. This March 8, 1900, A.O. Kepler and Ella Kepler by W.H. Kornegay Atty. That at the time of the serving of said notice defendantly wilfully and with force and unlawfully detained possession of the portion of the premises described as being detained by her and she so to do and failed and refused to vacate the premises. That plaintiffs are entitled to the immediate possession of said premises and have been since March 1, 1900. Wherefore the plaintiffs ask for judgment for possession and that defendant be adjudged guilty of unlawful detainment. W.H. Kornegay Atty for Plaintiffs.

I, A.O. Kepler on oath say that the plaintiffs are lawfully entitled to the possession of the lands and tenements mentioned and described in the complaint and the defendant unlawfully detains the same after lawful demand therefor made. and I further state that the facts set forth in the complaint are true.
A.O. Kepler.

No. 1256. Lav.

In the United States Court in the Indian Territory, within and for the Northern District thereof sitting at Vinita.

Ella Kepler and her husband A.D. Kepler, Plaintiffs.

vs.

Mary A. Caulk. Defendant.

Answer.

Now, comes said Mary A. Caulk, defendant herein, and for answer to the complaint filed against her says,

First : For a first ground of defense in this action the said defendant says that as to whether the plaintiffs are citizens of the Cherokee Nation, she is not possessed of sufficient information or knowledge upon which to form a belief; that she denies that the plaintiffs were the owners, and the time of bringing ^{of} this action, or are now, of an improvement lying in Delaware District, Cherokee Nation, known as the John Rogers farm, and mentioned and described in the complaint herein, or that they were such owners on March 1st, 1899, and says that the truth is that the said plaintiff, Ella Kepler, never had any ownership, right, title or interest in or to the said premises, other than an undivided one-fourth interest therein, inherited from her father, John H. Rogers, who departed this life sometime since, dying intestate, and leaving him surviving this defendant, as his lawful widow, and the said plaintiff, Ella Kepler, and another child, who has, since death of said John H. Rogers, departed this life, dying intestate; That as to the allegation in said complaint, that the plaintiffs on the said March 1st, 1899, leased said farm to one Sam Marler till March 1st, 1900, the defendant is not possessed of sufficient information or knowledge to form a belief, but knows that the said Marler occupied some portion of said premises during the year 1899 under some arrangement with the plaintiffs, or one of them; that she denies that during the time said Marler occupied said premises she, with the consent and acquiescence and connivance of said Marler, entered upon said farm, and moved into the dwelling house thereon with said Marler, but says that the truth is that she came upon said premises at the instance and request of the said Ella Kepler, and that the said Ella Kepler and her husband, plaintiffs herein, moved away from the place, and left the defendant living thereon, and that she continued to reside thereon as she had a right to do, being the owner, and entitled to the possession of an undivided three-fourths interest to the said premises by reason of the descent cast upon her by the death of her said husband, John W. Rogers, without leaving any will, he being jointly seized with her of the said premises at the time of his death, and by the death of the child above mentioned, without leaving any will, and seized of an undivided one-fourth interest in said premises at the time of her death, and the said defendant says that ^{the} said possession so held by her is the only possession or detention of the said premises exercised by her against the said plaintiffs, and that she is entitled to remain upon, and hold possession of the said premises as against the said plaintiffs, or any one claiming under them, and that she was dispossessed by the United States Marshal of the Northern District, under the process issued at the instance of these plaintiffs in this action, and that she has been damaged thereby in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), for which she asks judgment against the said plaintiffs, and against their bondsmen in this case, and that she be restored to the possession of said premises described in the complaint.

Second : For a second and further defense to said action of plaintiffs, the said defendant says that before the bringing of this action the plaintiffs had entered into a contract with one Sam Marler, by reason of which they had parted with all right to the possession of the premises described in the complaint for a period of time, which has not yet expired, and have no right to bring or maintain an action of unlawful detainer against the said defendant.

Third : For a third and further ground of defense to the action of the plaintiffs herein, the defendant says that she is an Indian by blood, and a citizen and member of the Cherokee tribe or Nation of Indians, as now constituted in the Indian Territory, and was such at the time of the bringing of this action; That about the year 1869 the defendant lawfully intermarried with one John H. Rogers, now deceased, who was a Cherokee Indian by blood, and who was at the time a member of the Cherokee Nation or tribe of Indians, and that the defendant and said John H. Rogers lived together as husband and wife up until the time of the death of the said John H. Rogers, which occurred about the year 1877, and there were born of said marriage two children, both of whom were living at the time of the death of the said John H. Rogers, and one of whom died intestate at the age of sixteen years, and unmarried, and leaving no heirs except this defendant, the other of said children being the plaintiff, Ella Kepler; that about the year 1870 the said John H. Rogers, now deceased, and this defendant entered upon a portion of the public domain of the Cherokee Nation, with the view of making and establishing thereupon a claim under the laws of the Cherokee Nation, which, ~~are~~ so far as affecting the rights of the parties to this action, are as follows, viz:

Sec. 2. "The lands of the Cherokee Nation shall remain common property; but the improvements made thereon, and in the possession of the citizens of the Nation, are the exclusive and indefeasible property of the citizens respectively who make, or may rightfully be in possession of them."

taken from the constitution of the Cherokee Nation, and the following:

Sec. 5. "No claim to any place in the Cherokee Nation shall be valid under an act regulating the settlement of the public domain, unless the persons locating the same shall, within six months thereafter, make improvements thereon to the value of fifty dollars, and be in actual possession thereof, or by agent lawfully resident in the Cherokee Nation, whether such place is to be used as a farm, residence, stock ranch or place of business." and

Sec. 3. "No person shall be permitted to settle, or erect any improvement, or cut or remove timber, within one-fourth of a mile of the house, field or other improvement of another citizen, without his, her, or their consent, under the penalty of forfeiting such improvements and labor for the benefit of the original settler." and

Sec. 4. "All improvements which may be left unoccupied by any person or persons, citizens of this Nation, and such person or persons remove to another place, leaving no person or tenants on their former place, for the term of one year, such place or improvements shall be considered abandoned, and revert to the Nation as common property; And any person or persons whatever, citizens of this Nation, may take possession of any such improvement so left, which shall thence forward be considered their lawful property; provided nothing in this act shall be so construed as to impair the rights of orphans."

Which last three sections above quoted are found in the laws of the Cherokee Nation, under an act of the National Council, approved November 19th, 1830, and the said defendant and her said husband, now deceased, having so entered upon a portion of the public domain of the Cherokee Nation, made improvements thereon, and cultivated the same, and continued to live thereon, the value of the improvements made by them far exceeding the sum of fifty dollars, and the portion of the public domain upon which they so established a claim was not within one-fourth of a mile of the house, field or other improvements of another citizen, and which said claim, and the improvements thereon had not been left unoccupied for any period of one year, since the said claim was established, or in any way abandoned; that at the time of the death of the said John H. Rogers this claim contained about eighty acres in cultivation, and about one hundred acres enclosed with rail fencing, and the one-quarter mile limit on each and every side thereof making said claim consist at said time of about four hundred acres, and upon said claim there was a log dwelling house, with side room, a stable, smoke house, granary, cistern and orchard; that at the time of the death of the said John H. Rogers, he dying without having made any will, and seized with the above claim and improvement, the same was governed and controlled by the following law, viz:

Sec. 30. "Whenever any person shall die possessed of property not devised the same shall descend in the following order to-wit: 1st, in equal parts to the husband or wife, and the children of such intestate, and their descendants; the descendants of a deceased child or grand-child to take the share of the deceased parent equally among them; 2nd; to the father and mother equally, or to the survivor of them."

Which is found in the said compilation of the laws of the Cherokee Nation above referred to, and the said daughter of this defendant and the said John H. Rogers having died intest-ate, and leaving no one nearer of kin than this defendant, the one-fourth portion of the estate of her father, John H. Rogers, deceased, which had descended to said child, became the absolute property of this defendant. Defendant says that there has only a partial administration of the estate of the said John H. Rogers, deceased, and what has been done in that respect has taken place under the laws of the Cherokee Nation, and in the Court of the Delaware District of the Cherokee Nation, and she is informed and believes that the said administration has been transferred by law to the United States Court in the Northern District of the Indian Territory, and that orders have been made upon the Executive Secretary of the Cherokee Nation for the transmission of the papers and copies of the record pertaining to said administration into said court, and that the Executive Secretary of said Nation has reported that he was unable to find any papers or records concerning the matter of said administration; that there never has been any division or partition in any manner whatever of the said claim or improvements established by the defendant and the said John H. Rogers, as above set forth, and she is entitled to an undivided three-fourths part of said claim and improvement, and to enjoy the use and the profits thereof, and to occupy the same, and that the premises sued for in this action are a portion of the said claim and improvements hereinbefore spoken of, and is a less portion than the undivided three-fourths portion of said claim or improvement, and that it is by reason of her right as the heir of her said husband, deceased, and her said daughter, deceased, that she occupies, and claims the right to occupy, the premises sued for in this action, and the relation of landlord and tenant between the plaintiffs, or either of them, and this defendant has never existed, and she has never been let into possession, or claimed possession under the said plaintiffs, or under the said Sam Warler, or under any person claiming any right under or through the plaintiffs, or either of them.

Defendant says that as to the allegation in the complaint.

that the plaintiffs are both citizens of the Cherokee Nation, she has not sufficient information or knowledge upon which to form a belief. This defendant denies that the plaintiffs, or either of them, were entitled, at the beginning of this action, or are entitled now, to the possession of the premises sued for. The defendant says that she was put off the premises sued for by the United States Marshal ^{for} ~~for~~ the Northern District of the Indian Territory under the writ issued at the instance of the plaintiffs in this action and that she has been damaged by reason of so being put off of said premises in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for which she asks judgment against the plaintiffs and their bondsmen in this case.

Wherefore, the defendant, Mary A. Caulk, says that the plaintiffs Ella Kepler and A.D. Kepler ought not to have and maintain their said action against her, and that she should be restored to the premises taken from her by reason of this action, and that she should have her damages for wrongfully dispossessing her assessed against the plaintiffs and their sureties upon the bond given ^{by} them in this case, and all her costs in and about this action laid out and expended.

I, A. U. Chase on oath do say that I am a practicing physician and am located at Tiff City, Mo. That plaintiff Ella Kepler resides in the Cherokee Nation about five miles from Tiff City, and her post-office is Cowskin Mo. That I am her family physician. That I attended on the plaintiff about ten days ago, at which time she miscarried, the foetus being about three months old. That at said time she was wasting, and that from time to time since I have sent her medicine. That my information when I last heard from her on Saturday last, was that she was still wasting, and at said time I gave directions for her not to be stirring around but to remain quiet. From my knowledge of her condition, it is not safe that she get out of the house for several days, and if she comes to Vinita at the present time, she will run risk of severe illness.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

AAD

In the matter of the application of Dora Hall, et al., for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, consolidating the applications of:

Dora Hall, Cherokee 3148
Mary A. Caulk, et al., " 3149

D E C I S I O N

The record herein shows that on September 20, 1900, Dora Hall appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, and made application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that Mary A. Caulk appeared at the same time and place and made application for the enrollment of herself and her three children, Bessie, Jesse and Laura Caulk, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. A copy of the testimony taken at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 25, and June 26, 1902, in the matter of the application of Milton M. Caulk, has been filed herewith and made a part of this record. On January 24, 1902, a birth affidavit was filed for Otis Caulk, a child of Bessie Caulk, born May 28, 1900.

The evidence shows that applications were filed with the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission of the applicants herein as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation and that their said applications were granted, and no appeal appears to have been taken from such decision.

The evidence further shows that at the time of their admission to citizenship aforesaid, Dora Hall and Mary A. Caulk were residing in the State of Missouri, and that Mary A. Caulk did not remove to and permanently locate in the Cherokee Nation until 1899, and that the said Dora Hall has never removed to and located in said Nation. The residence of Bessie, Jesse, Laura and Otis Caulk is considered to be that of said Mary A. Caulk.

Paragraph nine of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 23, 1896 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the nation in which he claims citizenship."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for enrollment of Dora Hall, Mary A. Caulk, Bessie Caulk, Jesse Caulk, Laura Caulk and Otis Caulk, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee nation should be denied, and it is so ordered.

N. B.—PRACTICE IN ALL APPELLATE COURTS A SPECIALTY

Chero.-3149. Mary A. Caulk et als.

Hon. Secretary of the Interior.

Washington, D.C.

Sir:-

Permit me to hand you herewith the Assignment of Errors, with the acknowledgement of the service thereof on the Nation by a true copy delivered to her attorneys, in Chero.-3149, Mary A. Caulk et als., objecting to the decision rendered by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, transmitted to your office on February 12, 1903.

I will forward the brief on the behalf of Mary A. Caulk et als. in a few days.

It will be seen from the record that the application of these parties was heard on September 20, 1900 and a judgment rendered that they were citizens and they were accordingly enrolled. Whether that decision was ever forwarded to and approved by the Department I am not informed, but on January 17, 1903 the Land Office of the Commission issued to Mary A. Caulk a straight card entitling her to appear before it and select her allotment of land.

Without in any manner, if it had the right to, which is denied, setting aside that judgment, a new one is rendered and transmitted to the Department.

This action, and other acts, I wish too to be heard upon, by brief.

Respectfully,

George B. Denison

Appearances:

George B. Denison for Applicant.
J. C. Starr for Cherokee Nation.

Milton W. Caulk, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q. What is your name? A. Milton W. Caulk.
Q. How old are you? A. 55.
Q. What is your post office? A. Chelsea.

Examination by Mr. Denison.

- Q. What relation do you bear to Mary A. Caulk? A. Brother.
Q. How long has she been living in the Cherokee Nation, within your knowledge? A. Well, she has been living here off and on ever since about '69.
Q. Do you know, during that time, where she has claimed her home to be? A. Well, for about 10 years her home was on Cowan prairie, in the Cherokee Nation.
Q. That covers simply 10 years? A. Yes, sir.
Q. All together? A. All together she has been here about 12 years--resided in the Cherokee Nation 12 or 13 years.
Q. Where does she live now? A. She lives near Chelsea, three miles north of Chelsea.
Q. Of what, if any, does her family consist? A. Herself and three children.
Q. Are they living at home with her? A. Yes, sir. Well, she has one grown child, makes four children.
Q. How long has she been living there? A. She has been living there about 18 months.
Q. What kind of a place is she living upon? A. The is living upon an improved farm, about 380 acres.
Q. About how much of it is in cultivation? A. I should judge about 75 acres in cultivation.
Q. What improvements, if any besides that land in cultivation, have they upon the place? A. Well, she has a residence and some out buildings, a few fruit trees. The fruit trees constitute the principal part of the improvements outside of the fence.
Q. How much fencing is there? A. Well, there is a fence around the whole thing except probably about 40 acres. That is the acres under fence.

Q. Do you know anything as to how and when she secured it?
 A. Yes, sir; she purchased the place about 18 months ago.
 Q. Do you know from whom she purchased? A. She bought it from a man named W. I. Greer, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. He resided at Chelsea.
 Q. Was he or his tenant living upon the place before that time? A. Yes, sir; he was living there himself. She just bought part of the place.
 Q. But it was part of the same place on which he lived himself? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Has she any other property that you know of?
 A. Nothing but stock, horses and cattle, personal property.
 Q. Who was your mother? A. Rhoda Caulk.
 Q. And the mother of Mary A. Caulk also? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Do you know when Rhoda Caulk came to the Cherokee Nation?
 A. She came to the Cherokee Nation in 1832.
 Q. Do you know what her age was at that time? A. I think she was about 12 years old when she came to this country; 10 or 12. I don't know exactly.
 Q. Do you, of your own knowledge, know of her living in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory? A. No, not of my own knowledge. I don't remember when we left. I was very small when we first lived there. They resided there from the time they came here up to 1848.
 Q. That was the family report? A. Up to 1850, I mean.
 Q. I said that was the family report; not your own personal knowledge. A. Yes, sir. Not my own personal knowledge; no, sir.
 Q. Had you any personal knowledge of her owning any improvements on the public domain in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir; she had improvements.
 Q. When was that, you first knew it? A. That was about--- Let me see. That was in---I think the improvements were made in '88 or '9. I forget which now. One or the other. Probably '89.
 Q. Do you know whether she owned improvements in the Cherokee Nation at the time of her death? A. Yes, sir; she owned those same improvements.
 Q. And you and your sister were members of her family until you grew up and left her? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. What district of the Cherokee Nation is Chelsea now in?
 A. Coowasee.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. When did you say Mary A. Caulk moved to Chelsea, Indian Territory? A. She moved there about 18 months.
 Q. Was that when she acquired property at Chelsea?
 A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Where had she been living previous to that? A. Been living first one place and then another. She had no permanent location. Living part of the time in the Cherokee Nation and in the Sumner Nation. One time she moved in the states, Tiff City. I don't know how long she stayed there.
 Q. Do I understand you that she has resided one place and another in Missouri and Sumner? A. She lived part of the time in the Cherokee Nation, until she was drove out of her home. She lived on the old homestead where her first husband lived. She got possession and then---
 Q. When was that? A. I don't remember just what year that was. It may have been in---I don't know whether 1880 or 1882, when she was driven out. I think it was 1881.

Deposition

Q. How long had she been living there at that time; at the time she was dispossessed? A. I think she had been there one year.

Q. Where did she live before that? A. Lived right on the same premises in another house, before that. I don't know how long she remained there. I was living down here.

Q. You were at Chelsea and she was on the Missouri state line? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How far is Chelsea from the Missouri state line? A. About 80 miles.

Q. Were you up there then? A. No, sir.

Q. How often have you been up there since 1896? A. I been there twice.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge where she has lived from 1896 to the time she moved to Chelsea, 18 months ago.

Q. Well, only part of the time. Part of the time, when I was up on a visit, I know where she was living then.

Q. When were you up on a visit? A. 1900, when my mother died.

Q. Where was she living then? A. On the edge of Cowskin prairie, in the Cherokee Nation.

Q. That is the only time you have been where she has been from 1896 until she moved to Chelsea? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is all you know of her residence of your own personal knowledge. A. Yes, sir; only just as I got letters. She told me where she was living. I received letters at different times.

Q. That is all you know by being there and seeing her? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Of your own personal knowledge? A. Yes, sir.

Examination by Mr. Denison.

Q. Where was your sister living in 1896? A. I don't know whether she was living in the Cherokee Nation or in the Seneca Nation. Near along about that time she moved to Tiff City, went to school her children. That was right across in Missouri.

Q. Your sister is a Cherokee by blood? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who does she get her blood from? A. My mother.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. Your sister Mary A. lived out of the Cherokee Nation a good long while, didn't she? A. Yes, sir; she lived out----

Q. She was born in the Cherokee Nation? A. No, sir; born in California. Father went to California in '50 and come back in '54.

Q. When did she come to the Cherokee Nation? A. She moved here after she was married; about '69, I think it was.

Q. With her husband? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was his name? A. John Rogers.

Q. Was he a white man? A. No, sir; Cherokee.

Q. How long did they live there? A. They lived there about 10 years.

Q. Then went away? A. No, sir.

Q. That would bring them up to 1899? A. I think her husband died in '79. She resided on the place there one or two years after her husband's death.

Q. Before she went away? A. Yes, sir.

Q. She was admitted by the Dawes Commission in 1896, wasn't she? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You don't know where she was living in 1896, of your own knowledge? A. No, sir; I couldn't tell. I don't know whether in the Seneca Nation or Cherokee Nation.

Q. How long had she been out of the Nation when she was admitted in 1896? A. She has lived around in so many different places I couldn't hardly tell how long she had been.

Q. She hadn't had a home in the Cherokee Nation for a great many years prior to 1896? A. It has been about 1880.

Q. She had no property in the Cherokee Nation at that time?

A. Nothing only her claim in the old homestead place in the Cherokee Nation. She had no personal property that I know of.

Q. Where was her residence at the time she was admitted in 1896, do you know? A. No, sir; I don't. I don't know whether the Seneca Nation or Cherokee Nation. I couldn't tell you positively where she did live at that time.

Q. I thought you said her residence for the past 10 years----

A. I meant after she was married she lived in the Cherokee Nation 10 years.

Q. The second time? A. No, sir.

Q. With Rogers? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't mean to say for the past 10 years? A. No, sir.

Q. All you know about her residence is since about 1900?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You don't know anything about her residence prior to that time? A. No, sir. Only the time she lived down here. I think it was '92 she moved to the Cherokee Nation near Chelsea. Then she moved back to the Seneca Nation.

Q. Did she live in the Cherokee Nation in 1892? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long? A. She lived here something over a year; 12 or 14 months.

Q. Who with? A. Lived on my farm.

Q. Visiting you? A. No, sir; she lived there and was renting from me/ my place. Made a crop.

Q. Working the farm? A. Yes, sir; made a crop there.

Q. Then she moved back to the Seneca Nation? A. Yes, sir.

Q. She wasn't a citizen in 1893? A. I think don't think she was--she was a citizen. It might have been the fall of '93 she went back up there.

Q. What did she come in 1892 for? A. She come to make this her home.

Q. Did she tell you that. A. Of course she moved there for that purpose.

Q. Did she tell you that was her purpose? A. No, sir. I don't know as she did. She moved there to make it her home. She became dissatisfied and moved back.

Q. What was her purpose in moving back? A. Thought she would be better satisfied.

Q. Where did she consider her home? A. She had no permanent home, only an interest in the old home on Cowskin. She had no home.

Q. Did she consider her interest in the old home on Cowskin prairie her home? A. Yes, sir. She considered that her home but she couldn't get possession. They dispossessed her of it after she married the second time and she never got her interest out of the place, as I understand it.

Q. Was her second husband a citizen? A. No, sir.

Q. He was a white man? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He is dead, is he? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did he die? A. He has been dead 8 or 10 years.

Q. Do you remember when they were married? A. I think they were married about 1883.

Q. Where did he live? A. He lived on the old place. She lived there at the time, when they were married.

Q. Did they continue to live there? A. Lived there about two years after they were married.

Q. Where did they go? A. Missouri.

Q. Was he a citizen of Missouri? A. Yes, sir.

Q. They lived there until he died? A. Yes, sir.

Q. She didn't come back to the Nation until after her second husband's death? A. No, sir.

Q. What was his business? A. He was a farmer.

Q. He farmed up in Missouri? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He never became a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?

A. No, sir.

BY MR. DENISON:

I want to introduce in evidence in this case the petition in the original case of Rhoda ~~XXX~~ A. Caulk for enrollment in the Cherokee Nation, known as Dawes case 5316, court case 259.

BY MR. STARR:

To the introduction of which the Cherokee Nation objects, for the reason that the records of the Commission show the action of the Commission and the applicant's are bound by it.

Joseph L. Williams, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by Mr. Denison.

Q. What is your name? A. Joseph L. Williams.

Q. Post office? A. Chelsea.

Q. Indian Territory? A. Yes, sir; Cherokee Nation.

Q. What is your age? A. 35.

Q. Do you know Mary A. Caulk? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you acquainted with her family? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Are you in any way related to her? A. Only by marriage.

Q. What relation? A. She is an aunt to my wife.

Q. When did you first become acquainted with Mary A.?

A. About the year '92, in the fall, I think.

Q. Where was she then? A. She was at that time living on her brother's place about three miles north of Chelsea; W. W. Caulk farm.

Q. Was she carrying on the farm? A. Yes, sir; she was farming.

Q. How long did you know her there? A. I knowed her there some like from September until the next March and then I come back to Vinita here, at my home.

Q. Do you know where she is living now? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long has she been living there? A. Since about October, 1901, I should judge.

Q. Is she living on a farm? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state whether she is carrying it on or not?

A. She is just like all other people on the farm. Has plowing done in the proper season; carrying on the farm.

Q. Do you know how much her farm consists of?

A. Not positively. To the best of my judgment I believe four eighties. That would be 320.

Q. Do you know she had possession of that place before she moved there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was? A. W. R. Greer of Chelsea, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Q. What is there in the way of improvements on that place?
A. There is one dwelling, two room house; corn crib; stable, and other out buildings as is necessary around a small farm. To the best of my knowledge, I think the entire land that she holds is enclosed.

Q. How much of the land is in cultivation? A. Indeed, I couldn't say. There must be something like 65 or 70, possibly 80 acres. I don't know exactly.

Examination by Mr. Starr.

Q. When did you say that she came to the Cherokee Nation the last time? A. The last time she come here?

Q. Yes? A. Why, it was October ' think. In October, she moved down here, 1901. She came prior to that time, a short time prior, and then moved down here.

Q. Where did she move from? A. I don't know, but I should judge from somewhere in the Seneca Nation or Tiff City. That was supposed to be her home.

Q. That is all you know about her residence, that she has lived on that farm for the last 18 months? A. Yes, sir; I don't know anything about the last after I just met her there in 1892 until she moved down here, other than seeing her on a visit, until she moved down here 18 months ago.

Q. You don't know where she has been living during that time?
A. No, sir.

The parties state that they have no further testimony.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of

Nation, consolidating the applications of

Mary A. Caulk, et al.,
Dora Hall,

Cherokee #3149
Cherokee #3148

DECISION.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation were made to this Commission by Mary A. Caulk for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Bessie, Jesse and Laura Caulk; that subsequent to the date of her original application a birth affidavit was filed with the Commission showing the birth of Otis Caulk, a child of Bessie Caulk, on May 28, 1900, and the same is made a part of the record herein; and by Dora Hall for herself. A copy of the testimony taken at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 25, and 26, 1903, in the case of Milton M. Caulk, Cherokee #3140, is made a part of the record herein. The record further shows that on January 30, 1903, the Commission rendered a decision in the matter of said applications and forwarded the same to the Department of the Interior for approval; that the Department did not approve said decision but under date of March 31, 1903, returned the record to the Commission for further proceedings and readjudication; that on April 23, 1903, further proceedings were had therein at Vinita, Indian Territory.

In the decision of the Commission of January 30, 1903, it is stated that the applicants herein were admitted to citizenship by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, under the provisions of the act of Congress, approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stat., 821), and that it appeared that no appeal had been taken from said decision. Upon further examination of the records of this Commission, however, it is found that said applicants, with other persons, made application to the Commission under the provisions of said act for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation; that some of said persons, including all of the applicants herein except Otis Caulk, were admitted as citizens by blood of said Nation by said Commission; that a number of others were rejected; and that those who were rejected appealed to the United States Court for the Northern District of Indian Territory, which court sustained the decision of the Commission. (See Commission Docket B #5316 and Court Docket p. 259).

The evidence further shows that at the time of their admission to citizenship, as aforesaid, Dora Hall and Mary A. Caulk were residing in the State of Missouri, and that Mary A. Caulk did not thereafter remove to and in good faith settle in the Cherokee Nation until 1899; and it is not shown by the evidence that she owned any effects in the Cherokee Nation from the date of her admission in 1896 down to 1899.

The evidence further shows that the said Dora Hall has never removed to and in good faith settled in the Cherokee Nation; and that prior to 1900 she never owned any property or effects in said Nation. The residence of the minor applicants herein is considered to be the same as that of Mary A. Caulk with whom they have resided since birth.

The ninth paragraph of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 498), provides:

"No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the nation in which he claims citizenship."

It is, therefore, considered by this Commission that its decision heretofore rendered in this case on January 30, 1903, be, and the same is, hereby set aside and held for naught; and it is further the opinion of the Commission that the applications for the enrollment of Mary A. Caulk, Bessie Caulk, Jesse Caulk, Laura Caulk, Otis Caulk and Dora Hall, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, under the provisions of law above quoted, and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary A Caulk et al as citizens of the Cherokee nation, consolidating the applications of,

Mary A Caulk et al----- Cherokee # 3149
Dora Hall Cherokee ----#3148

Argument for the Cherokee Nation.

On March 10, 1904 the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, after hearing the testimony submitted in this case unanimously signed a decision rejecting these applicants.

The decision recites:

"The evidence further shows that at the time of their admission to citizenship as aforesaid Dora Hall and Mary A Caulk resided in the State of Missouri and that Mary A Caulk did not thereafter remove to and in good faith settle in the Cherokee Nation until 1899 and it is not shown by the evidence that she owned any effects in the Cherokee Nation from 1896 down to 1899."

"The evidence further shows that the said Dora Hall has never removed to and in good faith settled in the Cherokee Nation and that prior to 1900 she never owned any property or effects in said nation."

The ninth paragraph of section 21 of the act of Congress, "An Act for the protection of the people of the Indian territory and for other purposes," Approved June 28th 1898, provides:

"No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the Nation in which he claims citizenship"

Even the principal applicant Mary A Caulk does not attempt to show by testimony prior to March or April of 1899 and subsequent to her admission in 1896 that she was a resident of the Cherokee Nation at that she had ever in good faith removed to the Cherokee nation. Upon the other hand her examination on April 23, 1903 shows that she removed to Chelsea, where she now claims to own property which she had recently acquired, from Tiff City in the State of Missouri, about eighteen months ago.

Her other witness introduced at that time testified to the same fact that at that time that she had been living there about 18 months and Mr Williams testifies specifically that she moved down there in October 1901.

Jim Childers testified in behalf of the nation in June of 1903 and he testifies that the principal applicant Mary A. Caulk was living in Tiff City Missouri when he moved away from there in January 1900 and he heard of her moving out upon the old Rogers place a short time thereafter. Now to corroborate Jim Childers attention is invited to a complaint in unlawful detainer was filed in this case which recites the fact that during the year of 1900 the said Mary A. Caulk attempted to take possession of what is known as the "Rogers ~~Farm~~ Farm" in the Cherokee Nation and this shows that James Childers was not mistaken as to the date when Mary A. Caulk moved over and attempted to take possession of this farm and that he was not mistaken as to the residence of Mary A. Caulk in the early part of 1900.

Thomas F. Rogers on June 25th 1903 appeared before the Commission and testified that he knew Mary A. Caulk, that she was formerly the wife of his brother and that a short time after his brothers death in 1877 she was remarried and that she lived at various places outside of the Cherokee Nation until a short time previous to the time, by her own statement shown, that she moved to Chelsea I. T. which was according to her own statement and that of her own witnesses in the year of 1901. There is really no evidence whatever to contradict this and there is no evidence that Dora Hall has ever lived in the Cherokee Nation.

A decision in this case really involves a construction of Paragraph 9 of Section 31 of the Act of Congress Approved June 28th 1898:

"No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the Nation in which he claims citizenship"

Now the Department has held in the case of Charles W. Cooper, Cherokee Enrollment case, (I. T. D. 4642-1902) that admission by the Court in 1896, puts the applicant in the exact position of any other citizen of the Cherokee Nation or in other words that have no superior rights. Practically holding that they must comply with the law with reference to settlement the same as any other applicant for enrollment. The Cherokee Nation has always held that admission to citizenship by the Commission or upon appeal to the court from the decision of the Commission, under the act of June 10th 1896 gives the person thus admitted the same status as if he had been admitted by a Cherokee Commission or by any Cherokee Tribunal, of competent jurisdiction. For instance the Cherokee Commission known as the Adair Commission under the Cherokee Act of December 8th 1886 had jurisdiction to readmit applicants to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and Commissions at various times were ~~delegated~~ delegated the power and authority to pass upon applications for citizenship in Cherokee Nation and in fact a great number were admitted by these various Commissions. They were courts of competent jurisdiction created by the National Council of the Cherokee Nation which body at that time had the authority to create these Commissions or courts.

Congress on June 10th 1896 assumed that authority, in other words it took the place of the Cherokee National Council and delegated this authority to the Commission to the five Civilized Tribes and we hold therefore that a person admitted by the Commission to the five Civilized Tribes or by the court on Appeal had no greater right conferred upon them than had the person admitted by a Cherokee Commission at some time previous thereto. If this be true the applicants herein were required to comply with the act of June 28th 1898 hereinbefore quoted which says that no person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the Nation in which he claims citizenship. This act was approved June 28th 1898. Now there is not a line of testimony to the effect that either of these applicants had removed to and in good faith settled in the Cherokee Nation previous to June 28th 1898. If this clause of the Act of Congress of June 28th 1898 does not apply to this case and to these applicants, then it seems to us that it is meaningless.

We can not make the clause applicable to any other kind of a case. In the year again decision it would not refer to those whose names are upon the 1880 roll because they would have to forfeit before they could be required to removed back to the Cherokee Nation but in the case at bar these people were confessedly not citizens of the Cherokee Nation on June 10, 1896, not recognized as such by Cherokee authorities, and to avail themselves of the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896 applied to the Commission to the five Civilized Tribes and the court on appeal admitted them.

Thereafter on June 28th 1898 congress intended to cover this very class of cases, those who had been previously admitted by competent tribunals, enacted that no person should be enrolled living without the limits of the Cherokee Nation.

This in act follows the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, in the North Carolina case;

Eastern Band of Cherokees Vs Cherokee Nation and the United States
117 U. S. Reports 288-312.

In this case it was held that a Cherokee applicant could not avail himself of the benefits of the Cherokee Constitution and remain without the limits of the Cherokee Nation. The law in support of this decision was incorporated in this act of Congress and we submit that for the Department to hold that the above paragraph in the act of June 28th 1898 does not apply to this case would render it meaningless for the reason that it could not apply to any other class of cases and we believe that it was enacted for this class of cases.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON, March 13, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Department letter of March 7, 1903, (I.T.D. 2299), transmitting a communication from Geo. B. Denison, Esq., of Vinita, Indian Territory, forwarding "assignment of errors" in the Cherokee citizenship case of Mary A. Caulk et al., I have the honor to enclose herewith report from the present Chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 12, 1903, forwarding the record in that case.

The record shows that Dora Hall made application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that Mary A. Caulk made application for the enrollment of herself and her three minor children, Bessie, Jessie and Laura Caulk, as citizens by blood of said Nation. January 24, 1902, a birth affidavit was filed with the Commission, showing that Otis Caulk was born to Bessie Caulk May 26, 1900. The record shows that Preston Davis, a non-resident, is the father of Otis Caulk, and that Bessie Caulk is his "unlawful wife."

Dora Hall, Mary A. Caulk, and some of the minor children were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Commission, under the provisions of the act of June 10, 1906, and no appeal was taken from the Commission's decision. At the time that Dora Hall, Mary A. Caulk and others were admitted they resided in the State of Missouri, and Mary A. Caulk did not remove to and permanently locate in the Cherokee Nation until the year 1899; Dora Hall has never removed to and located in the Cherokee Nation.

The Commission in its decision of January 30, 1903, quoted from paragraph 9 of section 21 of the Curtis Act, and held that the applicants were not entitled to enrollment.

The attorney for Mary A. Caulk et al., sets forth in his "assignment of errors" many alleged errors in the Commission's decision. The "assignment of errors" shows service on the attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

Inasmuch as the Department on August 19, 1902, (ITD 4642) in the Charles W. Cooper case, held that admission by the Court in 1896 placed an applicant in the exact position of any other citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that it was necessary for an applicant to have been a resident of the Nation in good faith on June 28, 1898, the office does not consider that it is necessary to discuss said "assignment of errors." This decision of the Department seems to settle the principle involved in this case. Mary A. Caulk and the other applicants, except Dora Hall, did not become residents of the Cherokee Nation until after June 28, 1898, and they are not, therefore, under the Department's holding in the Cooper case, entitled to enrollment. Dora Hall has never removed to and permanently located in the Cherokee Nation or the Indian Territory, and she is not entitled to enrollment. The approval of the Commission's decision is recommended.

Very respectfully,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Gentlemen:

March 13, 1903, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs transmitted the case involving the application of Dora Hall, Mary A. Caulk and her minor children, Bessie Caulk, Jessie Caulk, Laura Caulk and Otis Caulk, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, received with your letter of February 12, 1903.

Referring to paragraph 9, section 21 of the act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), you rejected the application January 30, 1903.

It appears that applications were filed with your Commission under the provisions of the act of June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission of the applicants as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applications were granted and no appeal was taken from such decision by the Nation.

You state that the evidence in this case shows that at the time of their "admission to citizenship", Dora Hall and Mary A. Caulk were residing in Missouri; that Mary A. Caulk did not remove to and permanently locate in the Cherokee Nation until 1899, and that Dora Hall has never removed to and located in said Nation.

The Acting Commissioner recommends that your decision be concurred in, as the Department on August 19, 1902, in the case of Charles W. Cooper, held that admission by the Court in 1896 placed an applicant in the exact position of any other citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that it was necessary for an applicant to have been a resident of the Nation in good faith on June 28, 1898.

The decision of the Department in the case referred to was made prior to the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of March 16, 1903, in the Yeargain case.

In view of said opinion, and of the decisions of the Department of March 17, 1903 in the case of Clement G. Clarke and the case of Elizabeth C. Payne, the case is remanded, in order that it may be readjudicated. Further testimony may be taken in regard to either applicant if you deem it necessary, or if the Nation desires it.

An argument filed by the attorney for the applicant, and the record, together with a copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter, are inclosed.

Respectfully,

W. W. Hastings,

Attorney for the Cherokee Nation,

Vinita, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that the Secretary of the Interior on March 21, 1903, remanded, for the taking of further testimony by this Commission, the consolidated applications for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Dora Hall, Cherokee 3148, and Mary A. Caulk, et al., Cherokee 3149. Further evidence is particularly required as to the residence of these applicants and as to the property they have owned in the Cherokee Nation since the date of their admission to citizenship. The applicants and their attorneys have this day been notified that any further evidence they may have to present in this case can be introduced before the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission on or before May 5, 1903.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

April 12, 1905.

D.C. 19732-1905.
I.T.D. 8598-1904.
1702-1905.
L.R.S.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

On March 11, 1904, you returned the record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary A. Caulk, et al, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

On January 30, 1903, you decided that the applicants in said case were not entitled to enrollment. March 31, 1903, the Department remanded the case to you with directions to permit the applicants or the nation to introduce additional testimony should they so desire. The record shows that additional testimony was taken April 28, 1903, and on March 10, 1904, you again decided that the applicants are not entitled to enrollment.

A brief has been filed by the attorney for the nation, also a reply brief by the attorney for the applicants.

It appears that Bessie, Jesse and Laura Caulk, aged 19, 17 and 15 years, respectively, are the children of the principal applicant, Mary A. Caulk. Otis Caulk was born May 28, 1900, and is the illegitimate child of Bessie Caulk. Dora Hall is the daughter of Clay Hall, and is the niece of Mary A. Caulk.

Mary A. Caulk's mother lived in the Cherokee Nation from 1832 to 1850. She then moved to California, where Mary A. Caulk was born. About 1854 she moved to Missouri. Mary A. Caulk was married in 1869 to John H. Rogers, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. She lived with him in the Cherokee Nation until his death, which occurred in 1879 or 1880. She remained in the nation for about two years after her husband's death, when she married a non-citizen and removed to Missouri. She resided outside of the Cherokee Nation from that time until 1899, during which time she claimed possession of the farm in the Cherokee Nation owned by her deceased husband, John H. Rogers, to which she returned in 1899. She states that she has been living in the Cherokee Nation "off and on for thirty years". Sometime after her return to the Cherokee Nation in 1899 she was dispossessed by her daughter and her daughter's husband. She then lived a portion of the time in a tent in the Cherokee Nation and for a short time it appears that it was necessary for her to move across the line into the Seneca Nation, at which time she claims to have left in the Cherokee Nation "a couple of hogs, a plow and a few things". She is now living in the Cherokee Nation and has possession of a farm.

The record shows that Dora Hall was born in 1876; that she lived with her father in Missouri until his second marriage, several years ago, when it seems that family relations became unpleasant and she went to live with her grandmother, who was a Cherokee woman and was living near the line between Missouri and the Cherokee Nation. Her father removed to the Cherokee Nation in 1883. She continued to reside in Missouri and has never moved to the nation. It appears that in 1900 she purchased a farm in the Cherokee Nation which is now controlled by her father.

It appears from your decision that the applicants herein were admitted as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation by your Commission under the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), and that your decision so admitting them was affirmed by the United States Court in Indian Territory. You based your decision rejecting the applicants upon paragraph 9 of section 21 of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), which provides that "no person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the nation in which he claims citizenship."

Reporting September 28, 1904, the Indian Office recommended that your decision be reversed and that all of the applicants be enrolled.

Mary A. Caulk and her minor children, Bessie, Jesse and Laura Caulk, were not physically present in the Cherokee Nation on June 28, 1898; yet, as stated above, Mary A. Caulk had remained in possession of a farm in the Cherokee Nation since the death of her first husband which occurred in 1879 or 1880. It appears that she has since said time claimed the Cherokee Nation as her home, and while she has lived at various places outside of the nation, it does not appear that she ever became a citizen of another state. It appears that while she resided outside of the Cherokee Nation she claimed said nation as her home, and never abandoned her intention to return thereto.

Under the decision of the Department in the case of Joseph D. Yeargain, dated March 18, 1903, and the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General approved March 25, 1905, in the case of Clara A. Ward, the applicant Mary A. Caulk is entitled to be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The residence of her children, Bessie, Jesse and Laura Caulk, and her grandchild, Otis Caulk, being considered the same as that of said Mary A. Caulk, they are also entitled to be enrolled as citizens by blood of said nation. The Department considers that its decision of March 28, 1903, in the case of Ora M. Camp, cited by the Indian Office, is not applicable to the case of Dora Hall. Ora M. Camp returned to the Cherokee Nation within three months after reaching the age of 21 years. Dora Hall has never returned to the nation, and the evidence shows that she had no property interests in the nation for at least one year after she reached the age of 21 years. Your decision, in so far as it rejects the applicant Dora Hall, is affirmed. Said decision, in so far as it rejected all the other applicants, is reversed, and you are directed to enroll said applicants as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully,

Thos Ryan,

Acting Secretary.

Q What is your mother's name? A Malinda J. Caulk.

Q What was your mother's name before she was married?

A (No response).

Q What was your name before you were married? A Rosa M. Caulk.

Q When were you married? A In 1899.

Q What is your husband's name? A Arthur Martin.

Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A Just myself.

THE COMMISSIONER: I find in the judgment of case No. 5316, Court No. 289, of the Daves Commission, that one Rosa M. Caulk was admitted to citizenship.

Q Are you the identical Rosa M. Caulk mentioned in that judgment? A Yes, sir.

Q And since that time you have been married to Mr. Arthur Martin?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Twelve years the coming month.

Q Continuously all the time?

A Yes, sir.

Q The name of Rosa Martin appears in the judgment of the United States Court as Rosa M. Caulk. She being duly identified and having made satisfactory proof as to her residence, and averring that she was married to one Martin in the year 1899, the said Rosa Martin will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The undersigned being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 21st day of October 1900.
